Road To There Mapmakers And Their Stories:

The Road to There Val Ross, 2009 With reproductions of some of the most important maps in history this book presents many of the unexpected stories of history's great mapmakers and their charts quilts songlines and parchments that guided men and women through the strange vast and mysterious frontiers of the world Reprint Good Books Matter Larry Swartz, Debbie Nyman, 2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children's books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level Stories About Storytellers Douglas Gibson, 2011-10-01 The legendary Canadian book editor presents this remarkable four decade romp through the back rooms of publishing Toronto Sun Scottish born Douglas Gibson was drawn to Canada by the writing of Stephen Leacock and eventually made his way across the Atlantic to find a job in book publishing where he edited a biography of none other than Leacock But over the decades his stellar career would lead him to work with many more of the country's leading literary lights This memoir shares stories of working and playing alongside writers including Robertson Davies Mavis Gallant Brian Mulroney Val Ross W O Mitchell and many more Gibson reveals the projects he brainstormed for Barry Broadfoot how he convinced future Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro to keep writing short stories his early morning phone call from a former prime minister and his recollection of yanking a manuscript right out of Alistair MacLeod's reluctant hands which ultimately garnered the author one of the world's most prestigious prizes for fiction Insightful and entertaining this collection of tales goes behind the scenes and between the covers to divulge a treasure trove of literary adventures He makes his life in publishing sound like great fun The Globe and Mail Toronto Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity World Exploration From Ancient Times Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2011-02-01 World Exploration from Ancient Times cover the challenges and excitement of expeditions and settlements as explorers raced to discover the world Meet the brave people who set out to find new places and read about their experiences in their own words Mapping and Navigation Cynthia Light Brown, Patrick McGinty, 2014-01-07 How did we get from 20 foot long maps to GPS devices small enough to fit in the palm of our hands How does GPS work and what can it tell us How do ancient mapmaking techniques used by the Romans and Greeks influence the satellite technologies we use today The history of mapmaking is full of remarkable characters who charted the unknown with an ever changing set of tools In Mapping and Navigation The History and Science of Finding Your Way kids ages 9-12 will learn the history and science behind the evolution of mapmaking and how much is still out there for discovery Readers will explore ideas through hands on experiments while learning new terminology and interesting facts Projects include using triangulation to measure distances creating contour lines on a mini mountain to understand elevation changes on a map and inventing a sundial and compass to understand the basics of navigation Whether mapping the solar system or mapping their own backyard all readers will be able to understand mapping technologies and see the world in new and exciting ways

Art as Communication Shawn Simpson, 2024-10-02 Is art a form of communication If so what does art express or represent How should we interpret the meaning of works created by more than one artist Is art an adaptation via natural selection In what ways is art similar to and different from language Art as Communication Aesthetics Evolution and Signaling employs information theory the theory of evolution and the newly developed sender receiver model of communication to reason about art aesthetic behavior and its communicative nature Shawn Simpson considers whether art from a biological point of view is the province of only humans or whether animals might reasonably be said to create art Examining the work of evolutionary biologists art theorists linguists and philosophers including Charles Darwin Stephen Davies H Paul Grice and others he addresses how well different theories of communication explain meaning and expression in art and argues that art is much more continuous with other forms of communication than previously thought Female Heroes in Young Adult Fantasy Fiction Leah Phillips, 2023-01-26 The heroic romance is one of the West's most enduring narratives found everywhere from religion and myth to blockbuster films and young adult literature Within this story adolescent girls are not and cannot be the heroes They are at best the hero's bride a prize he wins for slaying monsters Crucially although the girl's exclusion from heroic selfhood affects all girls it does not do so equally whiteness and able bodiedness are taken as markers of heightened fantasy femininity Female Heroes in Young Adult Fantasy Fiction explores how the young female heroes of mythopoeic YA a Tolkienian inspired genre drawing on myth's world creating power and YA's liminal potential disrupt the conventional heroic narrative These heroes such as Tamora Pierce's Alanna the Lioness Daine the Wildmage and Marissa Meyer's Cinder and Iko offer a model of being hero an embodied way of living and being in this world that disrupts the typical hero's violent hierarchy isolating individuality and erasure of difference In doing so they push the boundaries of what it means to be a hero a girl and even human Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley S. Peterson, 2008-08-08 As the amount of curriculum in today's classrooms expands and teaching time seems to shrink teachers are looking for ways to integrate content area and writing instruction In this revised and expanded edition of Writing Across the Curriculum Shelley Peterson shows teachers how to weave writing and content area instruction together in their classrooms The author provides practical and helpful ideas for classroom teachers and content area specialists to easily incorporate writer's workshop while teaching in their subject area New features in this second edition include internet websites that can be used to teach writing e.g. wiki's weblogs and digital storytelling examples from grades 4-8 classrooms that show how science social studies health and mathematics teachers can also be teachers of poetry narrative and non narrative writing new assessment scoring guides information on working with struggling writers and supporting English Language Learners graphic organizers templates and mini lessons that engage students in learning Caminando con mapas Campbell, 2006-08-01 Introduction To How Basic Math Is Used In Helping To Read And Understand Maps Walk On Maps Campbell, 2006-08-01 Introduction To How Basic Math Is Used In Helping To Read And Understand Maps Bulletin - Association Des Cartothèques Et Archives Cartographiques Du Canada, 2003 School Library Journal, 2004 Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, 2003 Quill & Quire, 2009 Decolonizing the Map James R. Akerman, 2017-06-16 Almost universally newly independent states make the production of new maps and atlases affirming their independence and identity a top priority but the processes and practices by which previously colonized peoples become more engaged or re engaged in mapping their own territories are rarely straightforward This collection explores the relationship between mapping and decolonization while engaging recent theoretical debates about the nature of decolonization itself The essays originally delivered as the 2010 Kenneth Nebenzahl Jr Lectures in the History of Cartography at the Newberry Library encompass more than two centuries from the late eighteenth through the twentieth and three continents Latin America Africa and Asia Topics range from mapping and national identity in late colonial Mexico to the enduring crisis created by the partition of British India and the persistence of racial prejudices and the racialized organization of space in apartheid and postapartheid South Africa The Publishers Weekly, 2007 The Idea of the Antipodes Matthew Boyd Goldie, 2010-01-31 A study that uses critical theory to investigate the history of how people have thought about the antipodes the places and people on the other side of the world from ancient Greece to present day literature and digital media Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
