Stubbs, Robert G. Thomson, 2016-11-10 The first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation in Asia Internationally renowned author John Stubbs follows up on the success of his previous volumes Time Honored A Global View of Architectural Conservation and Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas Architectural conservation is a rapidly expanding and under researched field in Asia and is international experts are often brought in making the subject of considerable interest to international academics Boxes and case studies by local experts add depth and interest to the authors meticulous research A website with extra information and resources accompanies the series <http://conservebuiltworld.com>      Time Honored John H. Stubbs, 2009-01-14 The absence heretofore of a comparably thoroughgoing but accessible resource on a topic of such urgent public concern was a glaring lapse that makes this deeply researched lucidly written and helpfully annotated book an invaluable addition to the literature New York Review of Books Time Honored is a comprehensive survey of the practice theory and structure of architectural heritage conservation throughout the world Offering an argument for why architectural conservation is indispensable to modern life Time Honored describes its parameters and evolution in an historical context and then methodically presents approaches used in various countries showing how historic preservation in the West differs from conservation in the rest of the world Illustrated throughout with over 300 photographs drawings maps and charts No other book navigates the global conservation programs policies and project types so completely      Gandhara, the Buddhist Heritage of Pakistan ,2008      Archaeology and Economic Development Paul Burtenshaw, 2017-12-02

Nowhere in archaeology is the gap between theory and practice more evident than in its ambivalent engagement with economic development. This groundbreaking volume assembles practicing archaeologists, economists, and NGO officials in an extensive exploration of the theoretical, practical, and ethical issues raised by archaeologists' use of cultural heritage to support economic development. The first chapters consider the problem of articulating the value of tangible and intangible heritage when economic measures alone are inadequate. Subsequent chapters present regional perspectives on archaeology and development and present a host of case studies from around the globe that describe archaeologists' development projects, including some that are successful and others that are less so. These studies both suggest best practices in the implementation of development projects and illuminate the obstacles to success created by political conflict and competing human needs. Ethical issues and practical considerations converge in chapters that explore the role that members of local communities should play in the design, management, and governance of archaeological and heritage resources. In this volume, archaeologists and heritage professionals will encounter a thought-provoking international discourse concerning the path forward for archaeology as the field engages with economic development.

The History and Heritage of Scientific and Technological Information Systems W. Boyd Rayward, Mary Ellen Bowden, 2004. Emphasis for the second conference on the history of information science systems was on scientific and technical information systems in the period from the Second World War up through the early 1990s. These proceedings present the papers of historians of science and technology, information scientists, and scientists in other fields on a wide range of topics: informatics in chemistry, biology, and medicine; information developments in multinational industrial and military settings; biographical studies of pioneering individuals; and the transformation of information systems and formats in the twentieth century.

International Law and Ocean Use Management Lawrence Juda, 2013-02-01. This book places contemporary problems of ocean use management in historical context, beginning with the time of Hugo Grotius whose seminal 1609 work The Freedom of the Seas was the basis of ocean law for the next three centuries. Individual use problems are dealt with in detail and include overfishing, migrating fish stocks, and fish wars oil drilling deep sea mining and marine pollution Throughout the author notes the need to seek solutions in ocean management from a more integrated perspective Emphasis is placed on the United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea and the resulting agreements This book therefore presents a unique breadth of view which will make it salient to policy makers diplomats scholars and ocean users      National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1973 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70      The Climate Change Counter Movement Ruth E. McKie,2023-05-29 This book provides an historical account of the emergence and spread of the climate change counter movement across the globe Drawing on an extensive database developed by the author the book recounts the development of an international network taking the reader on a journey through the history of the movement before looking closely at a series of comparative case studies examining movement organisations in different countries      The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977      Iran and the International System Anoushiravan Ehteshami,Reza Molavi,2012-03-29 Much attention in the West has focused on Iran as a problem country This book challenges the representations of Iran as a hostile regional power led by ideologues and goes further by discussing how international relations are viewed from inside Iran itself outlining the factors which underpin Iranian thinking on international relations and considering what role Iran as a large and significant country in the Middle East ought to play in a fairly constructed international system The book is written by leading scholars and policy makers from inside as well as from outside Iran and includes academics with unparalleled access and insights into the world views of the Iranian leadership Subjects covered include the rationale of Iran s Islamic constitution including its electoral system and the impact this has on international relations Iran s view of the ideal international system including the place therein of ethics justice and security Iran s international interests including energy needs and relations with the West including the clash between Iranian and Western views of the world order      Cultural Foundations of Mathematics C.
