Robert Owen Robert A. Davis, Frank O'Hagan, 2014-10-23

This text offers a major reassessment of the life and thought of the distinguished 19th century industrial philanthropist and educational reformer Robert Owen In a period when Owen's radical new visions for learning and teaching adult and vocational pedagogy and social transformation are receiving fresh and global attention Robert Davis and Frank O'Hagan place Owen's thought right at the heart of the Enlightenment advocacy of popular democratic mass education Tracing both the ancestry and the legacy of Owen's reforming spirit they also offer a critical appraisal of the relevance of his ideas for the development of education at all levels and stages in the challenging contexts of international 21st century education

Education and Instruction ,1876      Pioneers of Early Childhood Education Barbara Peltzman,1998-01-26 Early childhood education is fundamental to a child's later educational achievements and future success. The principles and practices of modern early childhood education have their origins in the past. While the educators who built the field have been the subject of many detailed studies, previous works do not provide adequate coverage of primary and secondary sources, multicultural educators, or more recent leaders in the discipline. This reference book provides biographies and annotated bibliographies of more than 30 pioneers in early childhood education from Johann Amos Comenius 1592-1670 and John Locke 1632-1704 to Maria Montessori 1870-1952, Leland B. Jacobs 1907-1992, and Lillian Weber 1917-1994. Special attention is given to multicultural educators including Mary Church Terrell 1863-1954 and her work with The National Association of Colored Women. Biographies are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by annotated bibliographies of primary and secondary sources. An introductory essay briefly discusses the history of early childhood education from the 17th century to the present. The following biographies are arranged alphabetically and each includes a brief summary of the subject's contributions to the field of early childhood education. Each biographical sketch is followed by annotated bibliography of primary and secondary sources including obituaries, articles, dissertations, and books. Works were selected because they represent the most interesting and informative sources by and about the educators. The volume closes with a chronological listing of the pioneers and a selected bibliography of general works on early childhood education.      Lives in Education Joan K. Smith,2023-05-31 This volume presents the history of Western education through the biographies of some 70 individuals past and present who exemplify the education of their times or have made important contributions to the development of educational theory or practice. In so doing, it links major issues and ideas in education to key historical personalities. Each chapter includes substantive background information, a summary, and chapter notes.      Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set H History of Education 24 vol set Various,2021-07-14 Mini set H History of Education re issues 24 volumes which span a century of publishing 1900-1995. The volumes cover Education in Ancient Rome, Irish education in the 19th century, schools in Victorian Britain, changing patterns in higher education, secondary education in post-war Britain, education and the British colonial experience, and the history of educational theory and reform.      Global Citizenship Education ,2008-01-01 The essays in this edited collection argue that global citizenship education realistically must be set against the imperfections of our contemporary political realities. As a form of education, it must actively engage in a critically informed way with a set of complex inherited historical issues that emerge out of a colonial past and the savage globalization which often perpetuates unequal power relations or cause new inequalities. The essays in the book explore these issues and the emergent world ideologies of globalism as well as present territorial conflicts, ethnic tribal and nationalist rivalries, problems of increasing international migration and asylum, growing regional imbalances, and increasing world inequalities. Contributors to this collection each on their own way argue that global citizenship education needs to project new values to reality test and debate the language concepts and theories of global citizenship and the proto world institutions that seek to give expression to nascent aspirations for international forms of social justice and citizen participation in world government Many of the contributors argue that global citizenship education offers the prospect of extending the liberal ideologies of human rights and multiculturalism and of developing a better understanding of forms of post colonialism One thing is sure as the essays presented in this book demonstrate so clearly there can be no one dominant notion of global citizenship education as notions of global citizenship and education are all contested and open to further argument and revision Global citizenship education does not name the moment of global citizenship or even its emergence so much as the hope of a form of order where the rights of the individual and of cultural groups irrespective of race gender ethnicity or creed are observed preserved and protected by all governments in order to become the basis of citizen participation in new global spaces that we might be tempted to call global civil society
