Land Rights in Africa Tor A. Benjaminsen, Christian Lund, 2012-12-06 Authors have published widely in the area A fascinating chronicle of changing legislation and its practical implications A unique title with application to African Studies Geography and Economics courses Securing Land Rights in Africa International Institute for Environment and

Development, 2005 Securing Land Rights Romie Nghitevelekwa, 2020-12-31 Securing land rights takes up themes at the centre of socio political debates throughout the African continent These relate to national struggles over access to land land distribution land rights and security of tenure Land in much of rural Africa is communally held a system that provides security of livelihood and a social safety net but is not immune to appropriation by government or injustices such as the eviction of women from the land on the death of their husbands This book contextualises Namibia within these debates highlighting the country's stance in relation to communal land tenure reforms with a focus on the realities of people's lives in north central Namibia Leading questions centre on competing ways of ascribing value to land mechanisms and monetisation of access to land commercialisation of land use de agrarianization and ongoing transformation underpinned by economic and territorial restructuring These processes have direct impacts on equity in access to land and land distribution and engender competing visions of land rights Communal land reform is an uneasy compromise between different processes and interests

Securing Land and Resource Rights in Africa Munyaradzi Saruchera, 2004 Land, Mobility, and Belonging in West Africa Carola Lentz, 2013-07-05 An ethnographic study of issues of land rights property regimes and ethnicity in West Africa Focusing on an area of the savannah in northern Ghana and southwestern Burkina Faso Land Mobility and Belonging in West Africa explores how rural populations have secured contested and negotiated access to land and how they have organized their communities despite being constantly on the move as farmers or migrant laborers Carola Lentz seeks to understand how those who claim native status hold sway over others who are perceived to have come later As conflicts over land agriculture and labor have multiplied in Africa Lentz shows how politics and power play decisive roles in determining access to scarce resources and in changing notions of who belongs and who is a stranger Illuminates the distinctive historical trajectory of land claims authority and belonging among the Dagara and Sisala peoples of the Black Volta region and locates this specific case history within broader debates over transformation in access use and control over land in colonial and postcolonial Africa Sara Berry Johns Hopkins University Important in the sense that it constitutes a detailed historical study of how complex narratives of belonging and notions of property interlock It is academic work of the first order Christian Lund Roskilde University Expanding Perspectives on Human Rights in Africa M. Raymond Izarali, Oliver Masakure, Bonny

Ibhawoh,2019-03-14 This book draws attention to emerging issues around the rights of minorities marginalized groups and persons in Africa It explores the gaps between human rights provisions and conditions showing that although international human rights principles have been embraced in the continent various minority groups and marginalized persons are denied such rights through criminalization and persecution African countries have a good record of signing and ratifying international and regional rights instruments but the political will and capacity for enforcing these with respect to minorities remain weak International contributors to the book provide new perspectives on the rights of marginalized and minority groups in different parts of Africa and the extent to which they are deprived or denied entitlement to the universality and equality articulated in law The authors show that human rights while having come of age as a moral ideal has not been fully entrenched in practice towards groups such as children indigenous populations the mentally ill persons with disabilities and persons with albinism This volume is geared toward scholars students human rights groups policy makers social workers international organizations and policy makers in the fields of criminology security studies development studies political science sociology children studies social psychology international relations postcolonial studies and African Studies

Re-conceiving Property Rights in the New Millennium Ben Chigara,2013-03-01 This book constitutes volume two of a two volume examination of development community land issues in Southern Africa Following from volume one Southern African Development Community Land Issues this book considers the possibility of a new sustainable land relations policy for Southern African Development Community States SADC that are currently mired up in land disputes that have become subject of domestic regional and international tribunals Chigara demonstrates that land relations in the SADC have always been and will perhaps remain a matter for constitutional regulation Because constitutional laws are distinctive from other laws only by constitutional design legal contests appear to be the least likely means for settlement in the sub region Only human rights inspired policies that respond to the call for social justice by acknowledging both the current and the underlying contexts to the disputes hold the most potential to resolve these disputes The book recommends efficient pedagogical counter apartheid rule psychological distortions regarding the significance of human dignity PECAPDISH as a pre requisite and corollary to the dismantling of the salient physical legacy of apartheid rule in affected SADC States The book shows that PECAPDISH s potential and benefits would be enormous The book will be of interest to students and researchers of Property and Conveyancing Law Human Rights Law and Land Law Women's Land Rights & Privatization in Eastern Africa Birgit Englert,Elizabeth Daley,2008 This collection examines women s land rights in East Africa in the context of land tenure reforms and privatization The Politics of Property Rights Institutions in Africa Ato Kwamena Onoma,2010 This book provides unique insight into the relationship of institutions that govern land rights to local and national politics in African countries
