Seed Is Mine The Life Of Kas Maine A South African Sharecropper 1894 1985:

The Seed is Mine Charles van Onselen, 2019-04-15 A bold and innovative social history The Seed Is Mine concerns the disenfranchised blacks who did so much to shape the destiny of South Africa After years of interviews with Kas Maine and his neighbors employers friends and family a rare triumph of collaborative courage and dedication Charles van Onselen has recreated the entire life of a man who struggled to maintain his family in a world dedicated to enriching whites and impoverishing blacks while South Africa was tearing them apart

The Seed is Mine Charles Van Onselen, 2005 The Individual in African History, 2020-03-31 This volume investigates the development of biographical study in African history and historiography Consisting of 10 case studies it is preceded by an introductory prologue which deals with the relationship between historiography and different forms of biographical study in the context of Western history writing but especially African historical and anthropological studies The first three case studies deal with the methodological insights of biographical studies for African history This is followed by three case studies dealing with personas living through fundamental societal transitions and four case studies focusing on the discursive dimensions of biographical subjects including religion cosmology and ideology Countries or regions discussed include South Africa Zambia Gold Coast Cameroon Tanganyika Congo Kinshasa and the Central African Republic in colonial times Contributors are Lindie Koorts Elena Moore Iva Pe a Paul Glen Grant Jacqueline de Vries Duncan Money Morgan Robinson Eve Wong Klaas van Walraven Erik Kennes

Africa Every Day Oluwakemi M. Balogun, Lisa Gilman, Melissa Graboyes, Habib Iddrisu, 2019-11-12 Africa Every Day presents an exuberant thoughtful and necessary counterpoint to the prevailing emphasis in introductory African studies classes on war poverty corruption disease and human rights violations on the continent These challenges are real and deserve sustained attention but this volume shows that adverse conditions do not prevent people from making music falling in love playing sports participating in festivals writing blogs telling jokes making videos playing games eating delicious food and finding pleasure in their daily lives Across seven sections Celebrations and Rites of Passage Socializing and Friendship Love Sex and Marriage Sports and Recreation Performance Language and Creativity Technology and Media and Labor and Livelihoods the accessible multidisciplinary essays in Africa Every Day address these creative and dynamic elements of daily life without romanticizing them Ultimately the book shows that forms of leisure and popular culture in Africa are best discussed in terms of indigenization adaptation and appropriation rather than the static binary of European foreign global and African Most of all it invites readers to reflect on the crucial similarities rather than the differences between their lives and those of their African counterparts Contributors Hadeer Aboelnagah Issahaku Adam Joseph Osuolale Ayodokun Victoria Abiola Ayodokun Omotoyosi Babalola Martha Bannikov Mokaya Bosire Emily Callaci Deborah Durham Birgit Englert Laura Fair John Fenn Lara Rosenoff Gauvin Michael Gennaro Lisa Gilman Charlotte Grabli Joshua Grace Dorothy L Hodgson Akwasi Kumi Kyereme Prince F M Lamba Cheikh Tidiane Lo Bill McCoy Nginjai Paul Moreto Jacqueline Bethel Tchouta Mougou

James Nindi Erin Nourse Eric Debrah Otchere Alex Perullo Daniel Jordan Smith Maya Smith Steven Van Wolputte and Scott M Youngstedt The ANC's Early Years Peter Limb, 2024-12-02 The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC's attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges Biko's Ghost Shannen L. Hill, 2015-05-21 When you say Black is Beautiful what in fact you are saying is Man you are okay as you are begin to look upon yourself as a human being With such statements Stephen Biko became the voice of Black Consciousness And with Biko's brutal death in the custody of the South African police he became a martyr an enduring symbol of the horrors of apartheid Through the lens of visual culture Biko's Ghost reveals how the man and the ideology he promoted have profoundly influenced liberation politics and race discourse in South Africa and around the globe ever since Tracing the linked histories of Black Consciousness and its most famous proponent Biko's Ghost explores the concepts of unity ancestry and action that lie at the heart of the ideology and the man It challenges the dominant historical view of Black Consciousness as ineffectual or racially exclusive suppressed on the one side by the apartheid regime and on the other by the African National Congress Engaging theories of trauma and representation and icon and ideology Shannen L Hill considers the martyred Biko as an embattled icon his image portrayals assuming different shapes and political meanings in different hands So too does she illuminate how Black Consciousness worked behind the scenes throughout the 1980s a decade of heightened popular unrest and state censorship She shows how in streams of imagery that continue to multiply nearly forty years on Biko's visage and the ongoing life of Black Consciousness served as instruments through which artists could combat the abuses of apartheid and unsettle the rainbow nation that followed

Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pulossof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa

World poverty Townsend, Peter, Gordon, David, 2002-09-25 World poverty is an important book offering fresh insights into how to tackle poverty worldwide With contributions from leading scholars in the field both internationally and in the UK the book asks whether existing international and national policies are likely to succeed in reducing poverty across the world It concludes that they are not and that a radically different international strategy is needed This book is a companion volume to Breadline Europe The measurement of poverty The Policy Press 2001 The focus of World poverty is on anti poverty policies rather than the scale causes and measurement of poverty A wide range of countries is discussed including countries such as China and India which have rarely been covered elsewhere The interests of the industrialised and developing world are given equal attention and are analysed together Policies intended to operate at different levels international regional national and sub national ranging from the policies of international agencies like the UN and the World Bank through to national governments groups of governments and local and city authorities are examined Key aspects of social policy like targeting and means testing de regulation and privatisation are considered in detail World poverty will become a definitive point of reference for anyone working studying or researching in the poverty field Studies in poverty inequality and social exclusion series Series Editor David Gordon Director Townsend Centre for International Poverty Research Poverty inequality and social exclusion remain the most fundamental problems that humanity faces in the 21st century This exciting series published in association with the Townsend Centre for International Poverty Research at the University of Bristol aims to make cutting edge poverty related research more widely available For other titles in this series please follow the series link from the main catalogue page

Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s complex history over the past several centuries Women in African Colonial Histories Susan Geiger, Jean Allman, Nakanyike Musisi, 2002-04 While recognising the inherent violence and brutality of the colonial encounter the essays in this anthology show that African women were not simply the hapless victims of European political rule
