Shit Happens Number Two:

The Queen Ann Caper Arthur L. Miller, 2007-11 Bart Miller owner of Morning Investigations of Sacramento gets involved with an insurance scam when a new client finds herself named in a policy that will pay her husband a million dollars after a double indemnity clause kicks in next Wednesday Valentines Day Queen Antoinette Margarete Goodrich is convinced that she only has five days to live and Bart falls for the case hook line and sinker Queen Ann drives a classic 59 Corvette and Bart tools around in Bessie a 49 Studebaker truck the ultimate spy machine He soon falls in with Lieutenant Hurray's gang at the Sacramento Sheriff's Department who's investigating a Corvette car theft ring Bart's office is full of various contraptions gadgets and gizmos He lives in a renovated fire station has a fetish for the unusual and things with motors He loves his 45 Peacemaker likes the numbers spiked coffee liquor talks to his subconscious lives the life of leisure and truly enjoys his women This established gumshoe is something else His cell phone played I'm in the Mood What's happened Rainbird Are you aware it's 4:24 in the Morning There's been an accident Bart involving a 59 vette we found your contract in Ms Goodrich's purse Thought I'd call

Never Spoken: A suspenseful private investigator novel TL Dyer, 2020-04-27 It's not the things we say that do the most harm But the things we don't Great characters edge of your seat twists thrills and intrigue Rosa Marie Santiago said she was innocent Even though she was found with her lover on her lap his throat cut his blood on her nightgown Even though her prints were all over the blade no one else in the house Even though the jury was quick to secure her conviction Three years into her sentence and she still says the same But Rosa's innocence is less of a concern to Private Investigator Lawrence Hoskins than his partner's guilt The case is a no go but was handed to Cass Fletcher by her former field training officer on his death bed and now she feels obliged to see it through So how to solve a murder after the jury has already convicted Then there's the silent calls at all hours of the night The feeling he can't shake that he's being watched Paranoia maybe after his last case rattled enough chains in the criminal underworld to come back and choke him Or is it that the deeper they go into Rosa's life the clearer the parallels between that case and this one become until it's hard to separate them Once again Hoskins and Fletcher find themselves caught up in a world where the enemy is silent and wears many faces A world of illegal drugs and dirty money in which the hunted turn hunters without a word spoken And with danger closing in from all directions Hoskins is forced into a decision he can't tell anyone about Not even Fletcher Never Spoken is a suspenseful private investigator novel and the third book in the Hoskins Fletcher crime series Keeps you guessing until the very end
