Homer Johnson, 2025-08-26 In this humorous story set in the repressive 1950s insecure Lars Jonson reveals two deep closely guarded secrets His lifelong dream is to become a professional modern dancer and he believes himself to be homosexual These characteristics are frowned upon and indeed despised in his Southside Chicago neighborhood When in his high school s college placement office he chances upon a brochure advertising an exciting new program in Modern Dance led by none other than the famous dancer Diego Ra at the Wilbur M Butz College in Alesburg Illinois he thinks This will be my nirvana Here he can realize his dream to become a modern dancer surrounded by fellow dance enthusiasts and maybe with a sampling of homos around as well Moreover he will be in a safe place far far away from the haters in his Southside Chicago neighborhood So he packs his bag and heads for Butz College Unfortunately not all dreams come true and Lars s nirvana is not exactly as was proclaimed in the brochure In an achingly funny and painfully human voice Lars shares his disillusionment and hopelessness But in the depths of despair Lars finds the courage to face and defeat his demons head on and discovers his dreams may be well within reach editor extraordinaire lover of bow ties sweet and so cheery she struggles to believe he's real Until Henry Samuel Beckett or Beck as he's known to most tells her the secret underneath his sunny surface He's been single all his life But in a moment of panic he's told everyone at his publishing house that he's married And when Connie an aspiring writer herself can't help defending him she ends up being the fake wife he doesn't actually have When they head off on a writing retreat surrounded by people convinced this must be a ruse both of them can't help but agree Until they share their first kiss their first touch their first time in only one bed Side by side every night as the simmering tension builds Connie starts to wonder if this might be real after all The Country Gentleman ,1898 The Collected Letters of Katherine Mansfield: Volume IV:

1920-1921 Katherine Mansfield,1996-03-28 The letters in this volume cover the eighteen months Katherine Mansfield spent in England France and Switzerland from May 1920 to the end of 1921 It is the period of her finest stories and when her life took its most decisive turn There is a subtle but unmistakable change in her expectations a new spiritual insistence that is both elusive and resolute From her Chekovian acceptance that they are cutting down the cherry trees she derives a tough existential directness the little boat enters the dark fearful gulf Nobody listens The shadowy figure rows on One ought to sit still and uncover one's eyes There is a determined push not always successful towards a necessary honesty as much as to artistic achievement while those qualities of her earlier correspondence remain undiminished the precision and directness the intelligence and wit the dark incisiveness as much as sheer fun Above all perhaps these letters comprise a record of very considerable courage against increasingly adverse odds as they approach the final years of her life Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
