Literature has co existed with the Hebrew writing tradition in Israel since the 1970s Consisting mainly of immigrants from Anglophone countries it is characterized by a search for personal and poetic identity in a highly transcultural environment challenging settled identities and opting instead for flexibility Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane

Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating The Children in Our Lives Jane Adan, 1991-01-01 I was born at midnight That means I can see ghosts when they want to be invisible writes fourth grader David demonstrating a child's capacity for making sense of personal experience The Children in Our Lives explores this capacity as well as how adult misperceptions of children's experiences affect those children It invites dialogue between teachers parents other caregivers and the general public who value children for their own sakes Adan looks for disparities between a child's experience and the adult's interpretation of that experience In questioning middle class nurturance she focuses on connections between experience and interpretation based on dominant traditional or mainstream values She argues that force of habit as well as a preoccupation with public image predisposes adults to embrace the abstractions that distort perception Consequently children are impaired as adults are in their ability to generate communities that are grounded in a creative concern for all human beings International
