

More Than a Meal

The Turkey in History, Myth, Ritual, and Reality

Karen Davis, Ph.D.

"Not only is More Than a Meal an excellent account of the history of hunting, farming, and killing of the turkey, but it is a penetrating examination of the culture of Thanksgiving, in which the turkey plays a central and demeaning role."—Lesley Rogers, Professor of Neuroscience and Animal Behaviour, University of New England, Australia

Margo DeMello

More Than A Meal The Turkey In History Myth Ritual And Reality:

More Than a Meal Karen Davis, 2001 This scholarly and authoritative book examines the cultural and literal history as well as the natural history and biological needs and concerns of turkeys Davis explores how turkeys came to be seen as birds who were not only the epitome of failure or stupidity but also the suitable centerpiece of the celebration of freedom in America itself Thanksgiving She examines the many varieties of turkeys and uncovers the methods by which millions of turkeys are raised fattened and slaughtered on farms around America today Davis takes us back to European folklore about turkeys the myths fairytales and downright lies told about turkeys and their habits and habitats She shows how turkeys in the wild have complex lives and family units and how they were an integral part of Native American and continental cultures and landscape before the Europeans arrived Finally Davis draws conclusions about our paradoxical complex and bestial relationship not just with turkeys but with all birds and thus with all other animals She examines how our treatment of animals shapes our other values about ourselves our relationship with other human beings and our attitude toward the land nation and the world

The Turkey Andrew F. Smith, 2006-09-22 Food historian Andrew F Smith presents the turkey in ten courses beginning with the bird itself actually several species of it in the wild The Turkey subsequently includes discussions of practically every aspect of the icon including its arrival in early America how it came to be called turkey its domestication and mating habits the expansion of the bird's territory into Europe conditions in modern turkey processing plants and the surprising boom or bust cycles in turkey husbandry The bird's ascension to holiday mainstay and the techniques of stuffing are also discussed As one of the easiest foods to cook the turkey's culinary possibilities have been widely explored if little noted The second half of this book is a collection of more than a hundred historical and modern turkey recipes from across America and Europe

BOOK JACKET Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2021-04-13 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds It examines the interactions humans and animals have with each other and the ways animal lives intersect with human societies Since existing social orders rely on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs the questions posed by human animal studies touch upon a wide range of fundamental issues Animals and Society provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field Margo DeMello offers students and scholars a holistic and comprehensive picture of the state of inquiry into the relationships that exist between humans and other animals She considers interactions between animals and humans in social organizations such as the family the legal system and political and religious institutions A major focus is the social construction of animals in world cultures and the way in which these social meanings are used to reinforce and perpetuate hierarchical human relationships such as racism sexism and class privilege The book also examines how different human groups construct a range of identities for themselves and for others through animals This second edition of Animals and Society is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book's relevance for student and activist readers alike It includes many new international examples all new case studies and updated supplementary readings Sister Species Lisa A. Kemmerer, 2011-06-01 Sister Species Women Animals and Social Justice addresses interconnections between speciesism sexism racism and homophobia clarifying why social justice activists in the twenty first century must challenge intersecting forms of oppression This anthology presents bold and gripping sometimes horrifying personal narratives from fourteen activists who have personally explored links of oppression between humans and animals including such exploitative enterprises as cockfighting factory farming vivisection and the bushmeat trade Sister Species asks readers to rethink how they view others how they affect animals with their daily choices and how they might bring change for all who are abused These essays remind readers that women have always been important to social justice and animal advocacy and they urge each of us to recognize the links that continue to bind all oppressed individuals The astonishing honesty of these contributors demonstrates with painful clarity why every woman should be an animal activist and why every animal activist should be a feminist Contributors are Carol J Adams Tara Sophia Bahna James Karen Davis Elizabeth Jane Farians Hope Ferdowsian Linda Fisher Twyla Fran ois Christine Garcia A Breeze Harper Sangamithra Iyer Patrice Jones Lisa Kemmerer Allison Lance Ingrid Newkirk Lauren Ornelas and Miyun Park Critical Animal Studies Atsuko Matsuoka, John Sorenson, 2018-02-05 This important book charts new territory by showcasing some of the newest developments in the rapidly growing field of Critical Animal Studies Critical Animal Studies presents a radical ethical and normative challenge to existing systems of power in the context of neoliberal capitalism and to the existential structure of speciesism The essays in this book link activist and academic approaches to dismantle the exploitation and oppression of nonhuman animals Featuring an international team of contributors the book reflects the transdisciplinary character of Critical Animal Studies with chapters by activists and academics from disciplines across the social sciences including historical archaeology political science psychology geography law social work and philosophy The book provides advanced level students with an ideal introduction to a wide range of perspectives on Critical Animal Studies amongst other things proposing new ways of considering animal advocacy decolonization and liberation Critical Animal Studies John Sorenson, 2014-04-21 Engaging and passionate this contemporary work provokes new ways of thinking about animal human interaction A cutting edge volume of original essays Critical Animal Studies examines our exploitation and commodification of non human animals By inquiring into the contradictions that have shaped our understanding of animals the contributors of this collection have set out to question the systemic oppression inherent in our treatment of animals The collection closes with a thoughtful consideration of some of the complexities of activism as well as a discussion of how to further the progress of animal rights Analyzing economic ethical historical and sociological aspects of human animal relations this interdisciplinary volume is a must read for all upper level students in animal studies critical animal studies animals and society and anthrozoology courses Features draws together contributions from some of the most active and committed individuals advancing the field of critical animal studies takes a revolutionary approach to mainstream animal studies by advocating for justice from a politically progressive abolitionist perspective supports curricular objectives of animal studies courses by encouraging students to critically analyze the shifting roles of animals in contemporary Western society and their consequences

Ecofeminism: Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth Carol J. Adams, Lori Gruen, 2014-07-31 Leading feminist scholars and activists as well as new voices introduce and explore themes central to contemporary ecofeminism Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth first offers an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism and provides a timeline for important publications and events This is followed by contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world In the final section the contributors explore the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Throughout the book the authors engage with intersections of gender and gender non conformity race sexuality disability and species The result is a new up to date resource for students and teachers of animal studies environmental studies feminist gender studies and practical ethics
