Mother Always Told Me:

The Cry That No One Heard Andrea Lynn, 2011-09-09 As the years went by I didn't think about how much yell was putting me down until we had moved to Louisiana and then back to Oregon You call yourself a mother and in your heart you could never do wrong What kind of a mother would do that to her own daughter You all would always tell me that I did not belong with you guys well you know you're right I don't belong to none of you So you know all of you guys were wrong in what you have done One day I will find my children

Springfield Road Salena Godden, 2024-05-02 This is the story of a home A story rooted in love The story of a poet born of an Irish jazz musician and a Jamaican go go dancer an absent father and a resilient mother In Springfield Road Salena Godden evokes an era when oranges seemed bigger and summers were longer a world of half penny sweets free school milk hand me downs and Thatcher's Britain for those too young to remember and for those old enough to know For Salena it was a time for learning that life can be brutal with first betrayals and first losses but also that there are endless riches to uncover in the world In equal parts powerful tender and fearless Springfield Road shows us where in a world full of shadows hope is to be found
