The Psychology of Design Rajeev Batra, Colleen Seifert, Diann Brei, 2015-07-24 Design plays an increasingly larger role today in creating consumer desire for products and liking for commercial messages However the psychological processes involved are only partially understood In addition design is inherently interdisciplinary involving among others important elements of aesthetics anthropology brand strategy creativity design science engineering graphic design industrial design marketing material science product design and several areas within psychology While researchers and practitioners in all of these fields seek to learn more about how and why good design works its magic they may benefit from each other's work The chapters in this edited book bring together organizing frameworks and reviews of the relevant literatures from many of these contributing disciplines along with recent empirical work They cover relevant areas such as embodied cognition processing fluency experiential marketing sensory marketing visual aesthetics and other research streams related to the impact of design on consumers Importantly the primary focus of these chapters is not on product design that creates functional value for the targeted consumer but rather on how design can create the kind of emotional experiential hedonic and sensory appeal that results in attracting consumers Each chapter concludes with Implications for a theory of design as well as for designers

Textiles, Identity and Innovation: Design the Future Gianni Montagna, Cristina Carvalho, 2018-10-03 D_TEX presents itself as a starting point at a crossroads of ideas and debates around the complex universe of Textile Design in all its forms manifestations and dimensions The textile universe allied to mankind since its beginnings is increasingly far from being an area of exhausted possibilities each moment proposing important innovations that need a presentation discussion and maturation space that is comprehensive and above all inter and transdisciplinary Presently the disciplinary areas where the textile area is present are increasing and important such as fashion home textiles technical clothing and accessories but also construction and health among others and can provide new possibilities and different disciplinary areas and allowing the production of new knowledge D_TEX proposes to
