New Communities Usa:

New Communities U.S.A. Raymond J. Burby, Shirley F. Weiss, 1976      Metroburbia, USA Paul L Knox, 2008-06-19

Decades of economic prosperity in the United States have redefined the American dream Paul Knox explores how extreme versions of this dream have changed the American landscape Increased wealth has led America's metropolitan areas to develop into vast sprawling regions of metroburbia fragmented mixtures of employment and residential settings combining urban and suburban characteristics Upper middle class Americans are moving into larger homes in greater numbers which leads Knox to explore the relationship between built form and material culture in contemporary society He covers changes in home design real estate the work of developers and the changing wishes of consumers Knox shows that contemporary suburban landscapes are a product of consumer demand combined with the logic of real estate development mediated by design and policy professionals and institutions of governance Suburban landscapes not only echo the fortunes of successive generations of inhabitants Knox argues they also reflect the country's changing core values Knox addresses key areas of concern and importance to today's urban planners and suburban residents including McMansions traffic disasters house design homeowner's associations exclusionary politics and big box stores Through the inclusion of examples and photos Metroburbia USA creates an accessible portrait of today's suburbs supported by data anecdotes and social theory It is a broad interpretation of the American metropolitan form that looks carefully at the different influences that contribute to where and how we live today      Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,      Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents , 1976      Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, Cumulative Index United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1976      Federal Evaluations , Contains an inventory of evaluation reports produced by and for selected Federal agencies including GAO evaluation reports that relate to the programs of those agencies      The Fate of Cities Roger Biles, 2011 The first major comprehensive treatment of urban revitalization in 35 years Examines the federal government's relationship with urban America from the Truman through the Clinton administrations Provides a telling critique of how in the long run government turned a blind eye to the fate of cities
