New Dimensions In Regional Integration:

New Dimensions in Regional Integration Jaime De Melo, Arvind Panagariya, 1993 This volume considers the implications of revived interest in regional integration for the world trading system The New Regionalism in Trade Policy Jaime De Melo, 1992

Global Governance Lisa Martin, 2017-03-02 As economic social and environmental connections among states have grown stronger and denser in the last decades new levels and types of governance have emerged The process of globalization while not entirely new has created new challenges for policymakers attempting to reap its benefits and manage its effects This volume pulls together work on global governance that examines these challenges and looks at the patterns of governance that emerge The work is organized into six sections The first introduces concepts crucial to the analysis of global governance including representation efficiency and hierarchy The next two sections turn to specific patterns of governance in two realms security and economic affairs respectively The fourth section examines legal dimensions of governance The fifth section concentrates on the impact of global governance on domestic politics while the sixth looks at how concepts of norms and legitimacy structure our understanding of governance Overall this collection reveals a rich scholarly understanding of globalization governance and institutions that builds on deep theoretical roots while shedding light on major policy issues

Globalization and International Trade Policies Robert Mitchell Stern, 2009 This book brings together a collection of papers that Robert M Stern and his co authors have written in recent years The collection addresses a variety of issues pertinent to the global trading system One group of papers deals with globalization in terms of what the public needs to know about this phenomenon and the role of the World Trade Organization WTO whether some countries may be hurt by globalization how global market integration relates to national sovereignty and how and whether considerations of fairness are and should be dealt with in the global trading system and WTO negotiations A second group of papers consists of analytical and computational modeling studies of multilateral regional and bilateral trading arrangements and negotiations from a global and national perspective for the United States and other major trading countries The remaining papers include an empirical analysis of barriers to international services transactions and the consequences of liberalization and issues of international trade and labor standards
