New Grove 20th Century French Masters:

The New Grove Twentieth-century French Masters, 1986 Twentieth-century French Masters Fauré, Debussy, Satie, Ravel, Poulenc, Messiaen, Boulez, 1986 The 20th Century A-GI Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Research Materials in Music Phillip R. Rehfeldt, 1990-01-01 This text was developed for use in a standard college level introduction to graduate studies course in musicology that I taught for thirty three years at the University of Redlands A History of Song Denis Stevens, 1961 Story of almost a thousand years of song from the time of the troubadours to the present day Evenings with the Orchestra D. Kern Holoman, 1992 Guide to the live orchestral performance that includes tips on what to wear information on musical form and short biographies of composers A Conductor's Guide to Choral-orchestral Works, Twentieth Century, Part II Jonathan D. Green, 1998 This innovative survey of large choral orchestral works is a continuation of the author's previous study of twentieth century works with English texts Green examines nearly one hundred works from Rachmaninov's Vesna to Penderecki's Song of Songs For each work he provides a biography of the composer complete instrumentation text sources editions availability of performing materials performance issues discography and bibliography of the composer and the work Based upon direct score study each work has been evaluated in terms of potential performance problems rehearsal issues and level of difficulty for both the choir and orchestra When present solo roles are described The composers represented in this work include Bela Bartok Leonard Bernstein Ernest Bloch Maurice Duruf Hans Werner Henze Paul Hindemith Arthur Honegger Leos Janacek György Ligeti Gustav Mahler Carl Orff Krzysztof Penderecki Francis Poulenc Igor Stravinsky Anton Webern and Kurt Weill Written as a field guide for conductors and others involved in programming concerts for choir and orchestra this text will prove a useful source of new repertoire ideas and an invaluable aid to rehearsal preparation Opera Guy A. Marco, 2001 Opera is the only guide to the research writings on all aspects of opera This second edition presents 2 833 titles over 2 000 more than the first edition of books parts of books articles and dissertations with full bibliographic descriptions and critical annotations Users will find the core literature on the operas of 320 individual composers and details of operatic life in 43 countries All relevant works through to November 1999 have been considered covering more than fifteen years of literature since the first edition was published Provided by publisher The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation In the course of the century her role changed dramatically in the first fifty years two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power whilst the immediate post war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies Yet at the same time in the second half of the century France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation Throughout the century and into the new millennium France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation and its culture together with that of the Francophone world reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period This Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history language literature thought theatre architecture visual culture film and music and discuss the contributions of popular culture Francophone culture minorities and women

Erik Satie: Music, Art and Literature Caroline Potter, 2016-05-13 Erik Satie 1866 1925 was a quirky innovative and enigmatic composer whose impact has spread far beyond the musical world As an artist active in several spheres from cabaret to religion from calligraphy to poetry and playwriting and collaborator with some of the leading avant garde figures of the day including Cocteau Picasso Diaghilev and Ren Clair he was one of few genuinely cross disciplinary composers His artistic activity during a tumultuous time in the Parisian art world situates him in an especially exciting period and his friendships with Debussy Stravinsky and others place him at the centre of French musical life He was a unique figure whose art is immediately recognisable whatever the medium he employed Erik Satie Music Art and Literature explores many aspects of Satie s creativity to give a full picture of this most multifaceted of composers The focus is on Satie s philosophy and psychology revealed through his music Satie s interest in and participation in artistic media other than music and Satie s collaborations with other artists This book is therefore essential reading for anyone interested in the French musical and cultural scene of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century
