New Historicism And Cultural Materialism:

New Historicism and Cultural Materialism John Brannigan, 2016-02-12 New historicism and cultural materialism emerged in the early 1980s as prominent literary theories and came to represent a revival of interest in history and in historicising literature Their proponents rejected both formalist criticism and earlier attempts to read literature in its historical context and defined new ways of thinking about literature in relation to history This study explains the development of these theories and demonstrates both their uses and weaknesses as critical practices The potential future direction for the theories is explored and the controversial debates about their validity in literary studies are discussed Shakespeare and Contemporary Theory Neema Parvini, 2012-09-06 In the thirty years since the publication of Stephen Greenblatt's Renaissance Self Fashioning overthrew traditional modes of Shakespeare criticism New Historicism and Cultural Materialism have rapidly become the dominant modes for studying and writing about the Bard This comprehensive guide introduces students to the key writers texts and ideas of contemporary Shakespeare criticism and alternatives to new historicist and cultural materialist approaches suggested by a range of dissenters including evolutionary critics historical formalists and advocates of the new aestheticism and the more politically active presentists Shakespeare and Contemporary Theory covers such topics as The key theoretical influences on new historicism including Michel Foucault and Louis Althusser The major critics from Stephen Greenblatt to Jonathan Dollimore and Alan Sinfield Dissenting views from traditional critics and contemporary theorists Chapter summaries and questions for discussion throughout encourage students to critically engage with contemporary Shakespeare theory for themselves The book includes a Who's Who of major critics a timeline of key publications and a glossary of essential critical terms to give students and teachers easy access to essential information

JOSHI, 2025-10-14 New Literary Histories Claire Colebrook, 1997 Contends that the problem of historicism is not just about the validity of knowledge and that the new historicism is not so much an answer to the difficulties of writing history as the posing of new questions Treks through such terrain as Michael Foucault archaeology genealogy and power Pierre Bourdieu habitus representation and symbolic exchange Raymond Williams and cultural materialism ideology hegemony Althusser Macherey and Gramsci and Stephen Greenblatt Paper edition unseen 24 95 Distributed in the US by St Martin's Press Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Cunning Passages Jeremy Hawthorn, 1996

Rehabilitating Literary Theory Khaled Besbes, 2011 The present work seeks to bring literary theory in line with the most recent practical turn the humanities are witnessing When simplified succinctly presented and skillfully used in multi coded interpretation within a semiocritical framework literary theories become practical exercises in criticism not only facilitating the interpretation of literature but also making it more enjoyable and more rewarding This book is different from its counterparts in the sense that it includes an exceptionally expanded model of the practice of literary theories and replaces long and theoretical discussions with brief synopses of the examined theories It relies on less overused texts for illustration as it compiles and organizes the terms and phrases that are often used by the proponents of the discussed theories The most influential literary theories that have so far been developed in academia are included the New Criticism reader response criticism structuralism deconstruction feminism Marxism psychoanalytic criticism linguistic criticism cultural materialism new historicism postcolonialism and semiotics Through eliminating the excesses made in the name of theory this book will restore the faith of students teachers and practitioners in the useful and enduring nature of literary theory for the analysis and appreciation of literature
