Nyibayarri, Kimberley Tracker Jack Bohemia, William McGregor, 1995 Bohemia tells stories from his police tracking days finding lost people murderers thieves and horse rustlers as well as leper patrols A rich history based on a complex understanding of black white relations The Languages of the Kimberley, Western Australia William B.

Deadly Sounds, Deadly Places Peter Dunbar-Hall, Chris Gibson, 2004 A comprehensive book on contemporary Aboriginal music in Australia 'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth's controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen's achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother's Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing

Entangled Subjects Michèle Grossman, 2013 Indigenous Australian cultures were long known to the world mainly from the writing of anthropologists ethnographers historians missionaries and others Indigenous Australians themselves have worked across a range of genres to challenge and reconfigure this textual legacy so that they are now strongly represented through their own life narratives of identity history politics and culture Even as Indigenous authored texts have opened up new horizons of engagement with Aboriginal knowledge and representation however the textual politics of some of these narratives particularly when cross culturally produced or edited can remain haunted by colonially grounded assumptions about orality and literacy Through an examination of key moments in the theorizing of orality and literacy and key texts in cross culturally produced Indigenous life writing Entangled Subjects explores how some of these works can sustain rather than trouble the frontier zone established by modernity in relation to talk and text Yet contemporary Indigenous vernaculars offer radical new approaches to how we might move beyond the orality literacy frontier and how modernity and the a modern are Productively entangled in the process Indigenous Biography and Autobiography Peter Read, Frances

Peters-Little, Anna Haebich, 2008-12-01 In this absorbing collection of papers Aboriginal Maori Dalit and western scholars discuss and analyse the difficulties they have faced in writing Indigenous biographies and autobiographies The issues range from balancing the demands of western and non western scholarship through writing about a family that refuses to acknowledge its identity to considering a community demand not to write anything at all The collection also presents some state of the art issues in teaching Indigenous Studies based on auto biography in Austria Spain and Italy Boundary

Writing Lynette Russell, 2006-06-30 Have globalization and the emergence of virtual cultures reduced cultural diversity Will the world become homogenized or Americanized Boundary Writing sets out to demonstrate that this oversimplification denies the reality that today there is greater space for cultural diversity than ever before It explores the desire to categorize individuals and collectivities into racial ethnic gender and sexuality categories black and white men and women gay and straight which is a feature of most Western societies More specifically it analyzes the boundaries and edges of these categories and concepts Across nine chapters contributors reveal that such binaries are often too restrictive Through a series of case studies they consider how these various concepts overlap coincide and at times conflict They investigate the tension between these classifications that in turn produce individual speaking positions Many people indigenous native Anglo settler recent migrants of diverse ethnic backgrounds gay transgender queer occupy an in between position that is strategically shifting with the social political and economic circumstances of the individual In Boundary Writing the reader will journey through various complex permutations of identity and in particular the ways in which indigeneity race sex and gender interact and even counter act one another Contributors Erez Cohen Aaron Corn Bruno David Neparna Gumbula Michele Grossman Myfanwy McDonald Clive Moore Stephen Pritchard Liz Reed Lynette Russell Gender and Rights G. teaching of literacies and in the making of Knowledge about literacies The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Hunters and Gatherers Richard B. Lee, Richard Heywood Daly, Richard Daly, 1999-12-16 Hunting and gathering is humanity's first and most successful adaptation. Until 12 000 years ago all humanity lived this way. Surprisingly in an increasingly urbanized and technological world dozens of hunting and gathering societies have persisted and thrive worldwide resilient in the face of change their ancient ways now combined with the trappings of modernity. The Encyclopedia is divided into three parts. The first contains case studies by leading experts of over fifty hunting and gathering peoples in seven major world regions. There is a general introduction and an archaeological overview for each region. Part II contains thematic essays on prehistory, social life, gender, music and art, health, religion and indigenous knowledge. Verb Classification in Australian Languages William B. McGregor, 2013-06-10 This book deals with systems of verb classification in Australian Aboriginal languages with particular focus on languages of the north west. It proposes a typology of the systems according to their main formal and semantic characteristics. It also makes some proposals concerning the historical origins and grammaticisation of these systems and suggestions regarding the grammatical relations involved. In addition an attempt is made to situate the phenomenon of verb classification within the context of related verbal phenomena such as serial verb constructions, nominal incorporation and complex predicates.

Aboriginal Oral Traditions Renée Hulan, 2008 Selected from a conference on Aboriginal oral traditions these essays cover three broad subject areas: oral traditions and knowledge of the environment, economy, education and or health of communities; oral traditions and the continuance of language and culture; and the effects of intellectual property rights, electronic media and public discourse on oral traditions.

The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern, 2023-06-19 The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages is a wide ranging reference work that explores the more than 550 traditional and new Indigenous languages of Australia. Australian languages have long played an important role in diachronic and synchronic linguistics and are a vital testing ground for linguistic theory. Until now however there has been no comprehensive and accessible guide to their vast linguistic diversity. This volume fills that gap bringing together leading scholars and junior researchers to provide an up to date guide to all aspects of the languages of Australia. The chapters in the book explore typology, documentation and classification, linguistic structures from phonology to pragmatics and discourse, sociolinguistics and language variation and language in the community. The final part offers grammatical sketches of a selection of languages, sub groups and families. At a time when the number of living Australian languages is significantly reduced even compared to twenty years ago this volume establishes priorities for future linguistic research and contributes to
