Matrixial Subjectivity, Aesthetics, Ethics, Volume 1, 1990-2000 Bracha L. Ettinger, 2020-11-17 This book is the first of two volumes that together present for the first time a comprehensive collection of three decades of the theoretical writings of artist and theorist Bracha L. Ettinger. Edited and introduced by Griselda Pollock, they provide a systematic anthology of Ettinger's path-breaking and influential concept of Matrixial subjectivity as encounter and jointness in difference and chart her radical intervention in aesthetics, ethics, and theories of subjectivity far beyond classical feminist and current gender/queer theory. This first volume includes the writings in which Ettinger elaborates her original concepts of Matrixial space, time, and metamorphosis, fascination with nesting, resonance, transcriptum, compassion, self-fragilization, and resistance to emergence and copoiesis, transform theories of the subject, Eros, alliance, and love, sexual difference, alterity, relationality, trauma, and violence. Her critical dialogue with theorists including Levinas, Lacan, Lyotard, and Deleuze/Guattari, Butler, Cavarero, and Irigaray is evident here. A leading authority on Matrixial theory, Griselda Pollock provides explanatory prefaces to each chapter and a lengthy introduction that situates Ettinger's work in relation to socio-psychoanalytical theory and practice and current social and philosophical debates. Ettinger's interlacing of psychoanalysis, ethics, and aesthetics can be seen here to address some of the deepest challenges of our social, cultural, and political existence today. The Subject of Psychosis: A Lacanian Perspective S. Vanheule, 2011-10-03 This book discusses what Jacques Lacan's oeuvre contributes to our understanding of psychosis. Presenting a close reading of original texts, Stijn Vanheule proposes that Lacan's work on psychosis can best be framed in terms of four broad periods. Heroines, new edition Kate Zambreno, 2024-03-05 A manifesto reclaiming the wives and mistresses of literary modernism that inspired a generation of writers and scholars, reissued after more than a decade. I am beginning to realize that taking the self out of our essays is a form of repression. Taking the self out feels like obeying a gag order, pretending an objectivity where there is nothing objective about the experience of confronting and engaging with and swooning over literature. On the last day of December 2009, Kate Zambreno, then an unpublished writer, began a blog called Frances Farmer Is My Sister, arising from her obsession with literary modernism and her recent transplantation to Akron, Ohio, where her partner held a university job. Widely reposted, Zambreno's blog became an outlet for her highly informed and passionate rants and melancholy portraits of the fates of the modernist wives and mistresses, reclaiming the traditionally pathologized biographies of Vivienne Eliot, Jane Bowles, Jean Rhys, and Zelda Fitzgerald, writers and artists themselves who served as male writers' muses only to end their lives silenced, erased, and institutionalized. Over the course of two years, Frances Farmer Is My Sister helped create a community of writers and devised a new feminist discourse of writing in the margins and developing an alternative canon. In Heroines, Zambreno extends the polemic begun on her blog into a dazzling original work of literary scholarship Combining theories that have dictated what literature should be and who is allowed to write it she traces the genesis of a cultural template that consistently exiles feminine experience to the realm of the minor and diagnoses women for transgressing social bounds ANXIETY When she experiences it it's pathological writes Zambreno When he does it's existential With Heroines Zambreno provided a model for a newly subjectivized criticism prefiguring many group biographies and forms of autotheory and hybrid memoirs that were to come in the years to follow A book that has become its own canon Heroines was named one of the 50 Books that define the past 5 Years in Literature by Flavorwire an Essential Feminist Manifesto by Dazed and one of the 50 Greatest Books by Women in Buzzfeed

Marguerite Duras Leslie Hill, 2002-09-11 Marguerite Duras is France's best known and most controversial contemporary woman writer Duras' influence extends from her early novels of the 1950s to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980s The Lover Leslie Hill's book throws new light on Duras' relationship to feminism psychoanalysis sexuality literature film politics and the media Feted by Kristeva and Lacan who claimed her as almost his other self Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing writing by women recent European cinema film and literature The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2012 Introduction Knowing theory Pt 1 Theories of textuality The death of the author Structure sign and play Pt 2 Psychological theories The mirror stage Women's time Pt 3 Theories of society Systems of constraint Simulacra and simulation Lines of flight Conclusion Talking back to theory

On Both Sides of the Tracks Morgane Cadieu, 2024-01-09 An analysis of social mobility in contemporary French literature that offers a new perspective on figures who move between social classes Social climbers have often been the core characters of novels Their position between traditional tiers in society makes them touchstones for any political and literary moment including our own Morgane Cadieu's study looks at a certain kind of social climber in contemporary French literature whom she calls the parvenant Taken from the French term parvenu which refers to one who is newly arrived a parvenant is a character who shuttles between social groups A parvenant may become part of a new social class but devises literary ways to come back constantly undoing any fixed idea of social affiliation Focusing on recent French novels and autobiographies On Both Sides of the Tracks speaks powerfully to issues of emancipation and class Cadieu offers a fresh critical look at tales of social mobility in the work of Annie Ernaux Kaoutar Harchi Michel Houellebecq douard Louis and Marie NDiaye among others shedding fascinating light on upward mobility today as a formal literary problem

Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship in Postwar Cinema Marcelline Block, Angela Laflen, 2009-01-14 Marcelline Block's Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship in Postwar Cinema breaks new ground in exploring feminist film theory It is a wide ranging collection re-visiting important theoretical questions as well as offering close analyses of films produced in the United States France England Belgium and Russia This anthology investigates exciting areas of research for critical inquiry into film and gender studies as well as feminist queer and postfeminist theories and treats film texts from Marguerite Duras to 21st century horror films from Agnès Varda's 2007 installation at the Pantheon to the post-Soviet Russian filmmakers Aleksei Balabanov and Valerii Todorovskii from Quentin Tarantino's Death Proof to Sofia Coppola's postfeminist trilogy from Chantal Akerman's transhistorical transgressive and transgendered gaze to the quantum gaze in Steven Spielberg's Jurassic Park from Hitchcock's good-looking blondes to the career woman in peril thriller among others. According to the semiotician Marshall Blonsky of the New School University in New York, given the breadth of the editor's choices, this volume makes a splendid contribution to feminist and cinematic fields as well as cultural and media studies, postmodernism, and postfeminism. It lends readers new eyes to view canonical and other film texts. David Sterritt, chairman of the National Society of Film Critics, states that this anthology should be required reading for students and scholars among other readers interested in the interaction of cinema with contemporary culture. Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship is prefaced by Jean Michel Rabat's brilliant essay Mulvey was the First: Umbr(a): The Dark God, Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers John Lechte, 2006-08-21. Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers surveys the most important figures who have influenced post-war thought. The reader is guided through structuralism, semiotics, post-Marxism, and Annales history on to modernity and postmodernity. With its comprehensive biographical and bibliographical information, this book provides a vital reference work of the last fifty years. Lacan and Marx Pierre Bruno, 2019-08-13. Lacan and Marx: The Invention of the Symptom provides an incisive commentary on Lacan's reading of Marx, mapping the relations between these two vastly influential thinkers. Unlike previous books, Bruno provides a detailed history of Lacan's reading of Marx and surveys his references to Marx in both his writings and seminars. Examining Lacan's key argument that Marx invented the symptom, Bruno shows how Lacan went on to criticize Marx and contrasts Marx's concept of surplus value with Lacan's surplus enjoyment. Exploring the division between Marxist and psychoanalytic perspectives on social and psychological need and Lacan's formalisation of the capitalist discourse, the book compares the positions of Althusser, Deleuze, and Guattari and looks on the relations between Lacan, Marx, and capitalism using a wide range of cultural examples from Stevenson's Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to Brecht's Joan Dark and Pierpont Mauler. Through these readings, Bruno also elaborates an extended commentary on Lacan's central idea of the division of the subject. His focus is not only on showing how we can exit from capitalism but also, and just as importantly, on showing how we can make capitalism exit from us. This book will be of great interest to scholars and readers of Lacan and Marx from across the fields of psychoanalysis, philosophy, and political economy and will also appeal to Lacanian psychoanalysts in clinical practice. French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01. Marie de France, Mme de Sévigné, and Mme de Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters, translations, religious tracts, and miscellaneous fragments. There were obstacles, but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture. Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H_l_ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition      Out There Russell Ferguson,Martha Gever,Trinh T. There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau s piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford s on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press      Levinas and Lacan Sarah Harasym,1998-10-01 Levinas and Lacan traces the similar concepts and logics of Jacques Lacan and Emmanuel Levinas to explicitly render the rigorous questioning of the philosophic tradition undertaken by these thinkers and to articulate the theoretical stakes and practical consequences of such a conjunction for ethics In this book contemporary philosophers examine this missed encounter between Levinas and Lacan by tracing their preoccupation with issues that emerge in late modernity language subjectivity alterity and ethics      Umbr(a): Writing ,2010      Metafolklore Alexander V.

Avakov,2012-12-11 The book is organized in Folklore Units Each Folklore Unit has Context and may have one or more Metacontexts with citations of works of great philosophers or writers hence the title of the book is Metafolklore The book covers the life of immigrants from the USSR in the U S remembers life in Russia and gradually concentrates on the modus operandi of the KGB FBI CIA NYPD NSA ECHELON Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court Al and ISI It covers frontiers of legal theory of surveillance What distinguishes this book is the intensely personal account of the events and issues The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Foundations of the Everyday Eran Dorfman, 2014-06-04 We are used to seeing the everyday as an ordinary aspect of life something that we need to overcome whereas it actually plays a crucial role in any event of our lives This highly original book engages with a range of thinkers and texts from across the fields of phenomenology psychoanalysis and critical theory including Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud and Benjamin together with innovative analysis of French literature and the visual arts to demonstrate that the role of repetition and deferral in modernity has changed dramatically Rather than allowing the everyday gradually to integrate singular events into its repetitive texture events are experienced now as self enclosed entities allegedly disconnected from the everyday leading to its impoverishment The book thus offers a novel understanding of being body trauma and shock but within the framework of the everyday as a concept that deserves a theory of its very own Autobiographical Tightropes Leah D. Hewitt, 1990-01-01 In order to write said Simone de Beauvoir the first essential condition is that reality can no longer be taken for granted She and four other French women writers of the second half of the twentieth century Nathalie Sarraute Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig and Maryse Condé illustrate that producing autobiography is like performing a tightrope act on the slippery line between fact and fiction Autobiographical Tightropes emphasizes the tension in the works of these major writers as they move in and out of experience and literature violating the neat boundaries between genres and confusing the distinctions between remembering and creating Focusing on selected works Leah D Hewitt for the first time anywhere explores the connections among the authors In doing so she shows how contemporary women s autobiography in France links with feminist issues literary tradition and trends and postmodern theories of writing In light of these theories Hewitt offers a new reading of de Beauvoir s memoirs and reveals how her attempt to represent the past faithfully is undone by irony by literary and feminine detours Other analysts of Nathalie Sarraute s writing have dwelt mainly on formal considerations of the New Novel but Hewitt exposes a repressed forbidden feminine aspect in her literary innovations Unlike Sarraute Duras cannot be connected with just one literary movement political stance style or kind of feminism because her writing largely autobiographical is marked by chameleon like transformations The chapters on Wittig and Cond show how within the bounds of feminism lesbians and women of color challenge the individualistic premises of autobiography Hewitt demonstrates that despite vast differences among these five writers all of them reveal in their autobiographical works the self s need of a fictive other Duras Alain Vircondelet,1994 Traces the life of the French novelist and screenwriter and discussses the influence of her life on her writings
