From Metaphor to Direct Speech E Susanna Weygandt, 2025 New Drama a collection of actors directors and playwrights in Russia Ukraine and Belarus is one of the most active and vibrant artistic movements in the Russophone world today yet remains understudied in the West E Susanna Weygandt demonstrates that the major innovation of New Drama is a sonic turn an aesthetic development that moves away from traditional Stanislavskian embodied performance to something almost purely aural New Drama which began in the tumult following the collapse of the Soviet Union and continues even in an increasingly censorious Russia today emphasizes contemporary social issues and privileges disadvantaged voices using documentary modes to literally bring the voices of the dispossessed to the ears of the audience members As a result the Russophone New Dramatists speak dissent and dramatize resistance Ultimately they shift theatrical productions from something constrained and limited in both place and time to an ephemeral but unbounded gateway for social activism The sonic stage thus effectively functions as a social forum transposing action from the actors to the audience From Metaphor to Direct Speech therefore contributes to cultural as well as performance studies offering a compelling look not just at developments in theatrical modes but also at dissent and cultural aesthetics in Russia today

Situated Knowing Ewa Bal, Mateusz Chaberski, 2020-08-11 Situated Knowing aims to critically examine performance studies ideological and socio political underpinnings while also challenging the Anglo centrism of the discipline This book reworks the concept of situated knowledges put forward over thirty years ago by American biologist and philosopher Donna Haraway in order to challenge the Enlightenment paradigm of objectivity in sciences by emphasising the role of the embodied and partial socio cultural perspective of the scholar in the production of knowledge Through carefully selected case studies of contemporary natural cultural and technological performances contributors to this volume show that the proposed approach requires new genealogies of traditional concepts emerges from encounters with contemporary performative arts or contact zones and may potentially go beyond the human in order to include non human ways of being in the world It will be of great interest to students and scholars of performance studies cultural studies media studies and theatre studies
