Re Visioning The Way We Work:

Re-Visioning The Way We Work Ginger Grant, 2005-08 The tools of business are dynamic capital people markets and ideas all are living entities in a constant state of flux To take these tools to work with them and reorganize them in new and different ways to produce a positive effect in your life and your organization is the essence of the creative process How to get there This work will provide a working map for the journey toward your own potential A lucid gateway to Joseph Campbell's monomyth of the hero's journey particularly as it can be applied to one's career Ginger Grant is an excellent interpreter of this invaluable but sometimes rather difficult body of work I recommend her highly William Gibson author of Pattern Recognition A most remarkable technique born of a most remarkable vision This book grounds the world of business management and corporate organization in a mythological psychology It demonstrates practically a way to give creativity and imagination to the real life of the workplace A unique and important contribution to the field David L Miller PhD Watson Ledden Professor Emeritus Syracuse University Ginger Grant's creative reimagining of the work place promises any who will consider her mythic approach to doing business a more flexible and humane corridor out of the stilted and calcified set of rules and formats that govern its behavior Her leading impulse that the corporate ethos will change dramatically only when it understands and accepts its own functioning mythology promises to reanimate the place where we spend the best energies of our lives Dennis Patrick Slaterry Core Faculty Pacifica Graduate Institute and author of Grace in the Desert and The Wounded Body

Re-visioning Mission Richard G. Cote, 1996 This book explores mission and culture in the postmodern context of the United States by drawing upon the metaphor of marriage to illustrate the reciprocal relationship between faith and culture

How the Way We Talk Can Change the Way We Work Robert Kegan, Lisa Laskow Lahey, 2002-12-13 Why is the gap so great between our hopes our intentions even our decisions and what we are actually able to bring about Even when we are able to make important changes in our own lives or the groups we lead at work why are the changes so frequently short lived and we are soon back to business as usual What can we do to transform this troubling reality In this intensely practical book Harvard psychologists Robert Kegan and Lisa Laskow Lahey take us on a carefully guided journey designed to help us answer these very questions And not just generally or in the abstract They help each of us arrive at our own particular answers that can solve the puzzling gap between what we intend and what we are able to accomplish How the Way We Talk Can Change the Way We Work provides you with the tools to create a powerful new build it yourself mental technology

Re-visioning Family Therapy Monica McGoldrick, Kenneth V. Hardy, 2008-07-29 Now in a significantly revised and expanded second edition this groundbreaking work illuminates how racism sexism and other forms of oppression constrain the lives of diverse clients and family therapy itself Practitioners and students gain vital tools for re-evaluating prevailing conceptions of family health and pathology tapping into clients cultural resources and developing more inclusive theories and therapeutic practices From leaders in the field the second edition features many new chapters case examples and specific recommendations for culturally competent assessment treatment and clinical training The section in which authors reflect on their own cultural and family legacies also has been significantly expanded Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center Derek J. Tidball, Brian S. Harris, Jason S. Sexton, 2014-11-10 An international cast of theologians come together in this volume to offer essays in tribute to the late Stanley J. Grenz, one of the leading theologians of his generation Accordingly the volume includes timely explorations in some of the most exciting areas in contemporary theology It is only fitting that these very explorations revolve around the key motifs of Grenz's theology: Trinity, community, eschatology, and the key sources from which he drew for theology's construction: Scripture, tradition, culture While engaging key features seen in Grenz's work, some of the essays here interact with Grenz's own writings, reflecting on his theological journey and his contributions to evangelical theology In these ways, this volume highlights the kind of evangelical theology that so many have experienced in recent years and of which Stan Grenz was a leading proponent Revisioning, Renewing, Rediscovering the Triune Center then makes a significant contribution to discussions in contemporary theology while itself setting out to honor the life and work of an eminent theologian who did so much for evangelical theology Revisioning Christian Unity Huibert van Beek, 2009-11-01 We have here what might be described as a new Pentecost Cecil M. Robeck, Fuller Theological Seminary The most important aspect of the forum is that in deep and direct human encounters we have found Christ in each other It has confirmed to me that we are being led by the Holy Spirit to deepen our commitment to unity This is the hour of His grace if only we would listen Bishop Brian Farrell, Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity We believe this table brings greater understanding and breaks stereotypes Geoff Tunnicliffe, Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity This wasn't a conference that produced papers We prayed together This wasn't a conference that debated doctrines We shared our faith stories with one another This wasn't a legislative body that voted creating winners and losers We listened to one another That is why we gathered Bishop Jessica Crist, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America If the Global Christian Forum continues for a couple of decades, this gathering will some day be viewed as a watershed in twenty-first century Christianity Larry Miller, Mennonite World Conference Some would have said this event is not possible but here we are Rev Samuel Kobia, World Council of Churches The forum enriched my faith and expanded my view of Christian diversity as I came to a deeper realization that the Christian faith is so much bigger than any one denomination or fellowship Bishop James Leggett, Pontifical World Fellowship This meeting has been a milestone, setting an example and suggesting standards for dialogue among Christians It has built up momentum that will now be felt in many other places Rev John Mathews, Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church My participation in the forum will help me to understand where other traditions are coming from and why they do what they do I had never before had the opportunity to sit and listen to an Orthodox priest for instance Rev Judy Mbugua, Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church Sense of Place, Identity and the Revisioning of Curriculum Terry Locke, 2023-08-12 This book explores intersections between sense of place, the formation of identity indigeneity and colonisation literature and literary study the arts and a revisioned school curriculum for the Anthropocene Underpinning the book is a conviction that sense of place is central to the fostering of the change of heart required to secure the survival of human life on earth It offers a coherent overview of seemingly disparate realities on a geographically and historically sprawling canvas The book is a work of literary non fiction drawing on a range of sources literary works and criticism theoretical research empirical studies and artworks Of its very nature the book enacts an extensive cultural critique After establishing a cross disciplinary foundation for sense of place the book describes its relationship to identity with reference to such terms as attachment dispossession reclamation and representation It shows how a hopeful narrative for planet stewardship can be developed by the uptake of indigenous and traditional discourses of place It concludes with the envisioning of a place conscious curriculum and ways in which an activist agenda might be pursued in the Anthropocene

Revisioning the Earth Paul Devereux,1996-10-23 Devereux calls for an alteration of traditional perceptions of the world around us an ecopsychology that will reestablish harmony with the natural world His explorations of such ancient arts as feng shui herbal medicine vision questing and lucid dreaming heighten awareness of our place on the planet Photos line drawings Celebrating 100 years of the Tavistock and Portman Paul Cundy,Jessica Yakeley,2022-12-26 2020 marked the one hundredth anniversary of the first patient being seen at the world renowned Tavistock Clinic Over the following year the Tavistock Portman NHS Foundation Trust marked this centenary with a series of events celebrating its history and exploring issues of identity relationships and society This book is a collection of essays from these celebrations which describe the historical and contemporary work of various departments and services and consider how to draw on this heritage to provide valuable responses to current and future challenges The twelve chapters describe the organisation s thinking educational and clinical work with children young people and their parents adults organisations and wider society documenting the influence of clinicians such as Balint Bick Bowlby Garland Glover Malan and Pailthorpe The authors outline the development of services for people who have experienced trauma neurodiversity complex and enduring mental health problems and paraphilias or forensic behaviours They address issues such as gender identity the impact of couple relationship difficulties on parenting systemic racism within the psychotherapeutic professions and the societal health inequalities revealed by COVID 19 The book concludes with a chapter exploring leadership and followership in organisations and how this can be applied to work in the NHS This book was originally published as two special issues of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

Revisioning Christology Oliver Crisp,2011 This book offers a series of studies in the Christology of key representatives in the Reformed tradition engaging their thought for contemporary dogmatics Thinkers from each of the five centuries in which Reformed theology has flourished are represented John Calvin John Owen Jonathan Edwards William Shedd Donald Baillie and Kathryn Tanner Crisp presents an important contribution to broadening our understanding of Reformed theology by showing how important theologians have taken views often at odds with textbook accounts of the tradition Minor

Re/Visions Morris Young, 2004-03-12 Through a blend of personal narrative cultural and literary analysis and discussions about teaching Minor Re Visions Asian American Literacy Narratives as a Rhetoric of Citizenship shows how people of color use reading and writing to develop and articulate notions of citizenship Morris Young begins with a narration of his own literacy experiences to illustrate the complicated relationship among literacy race and citizenship and to reveal the tensions that exist between competing beliefs and uses of literacy among those who are part of dominant American culture and those who are positioned as minorities Influenced by the literacy narratives of other writers of color Young theorizes an Asian American rhetoric by examining the rhetorical construction of American citizenship in works such as Richard Rodriguez s Hunger for Memory Victor Villanueva s Bootstraps From an American Academic of Color Carlos Bulosan s America Is in the Heart and Maxine Hong Kingston s Song for a Barbarian Reed Pipe from Woman Warrior These narratives Young shows tell stories of transformation through education the acquisition of literacy and cultural assimilation and resistance They also offer an important revision to the American story by inserting the minor and creating a tension amid dominant discourses about literacy race and citizenship Through a consideration of the literacy narratives of Hawai i Young also provides a context for reading literacy narratives as responses to racism linguistic discrimination and attempts at othering in a particular region As we are faced with dominant discourses that construct race and citizenship in problematic ways and as official institutions become even more powerful and prevalent in silencing minor voices Minor Re Visions reveals the critical need for revising minority and dominant discourses Young s observations and conclusions have important implications for the ways rhetoricians and compositionists read teach and assign literacy narratives Revisioning Ritual Simon J.

Bronner, 2011-09-30 A fascinating analysis of how the study of ritual is critical to illuminating what is Jewish about Jewishness Revisioning John Chrysostom Chris de Wet, Wendy Mayer, 2019-01-04 In Revisioning John Chrysostom

Chris de Wet and Wendy Mayer harness and promote a new wave of scholarship on the life and works of this famous late antique c 350 407 CE preacher New theories from the cognitive and neurosciences cultural and sleep studies and history of the emotions among others meld with reconsideration of lapsed approaches his debt to Graeco Roman paideia philosophy and now medicine resulting in sometimes surprising and challenging conclusions Together the chapters produce a fresh vision of John Chrysostom that moves beyond the often negative views of the 20th century and open up substantially new vistas for exploration Re-Vision and Re-Form in English for Academic Purposes Contexts after the Pandemic

Hande Işıl Işık, Elif Kantarcıoğlu, Ayça Üner, Carole Thomas, 2023-03-16 With the breakout of COVID 19 the current decade has brought a plethora of challenges and opportunities requiring a significant shift in our lives most importantly in the area of education Throughout most of 2020 the pandemic presented many issues requiring us to broaden our thinking and harness our creativity to develop and adopt solutions At that time the sudden shift did not leave us much time to reflect on these changes We are now in a time of great innovation within English for Academic Purposes EAP contexts To this end the volume shares the experiences and reflections of different stakeholders including EAP practitioners teacher trainers assessment specialists and educational leaders and their response to the unexpected challenges and opportunities brought about by the pandemic The chapters specifically focus on how the pandemic has influenced and shaped our lives and future plans in the creation of our new normal

Re:Vision Aubrey Malphurs,Gordon E. Penfold,2014-10-14 Pastors around the country continue to look for the program the book or the sermon series that will turn their plateaued or declining churches around But what if the answer to revitalizing the church was closer to home According to trusted church leadership expert Aubrey Malphurs and veteran pastor Gordon E Penfold it is They believe that pastors themselves are the key In a time when many pastors are jumping from church to church every two or three years as they search for the right fit where they can make a difference churches are suffering from a lack of sustained leadership from pastors with a viable vision for ministry In Re Vision Malphurs and Penfold take pastors through a process of discovery and self evaluation designed to help them re envision their role create a culture for positive change and recruit people to come alongside them as helpers and encouragers Multiple appendices offer self diagnostic tools and surveys to help pastors assess their strengths and weaknesses for more effective ministry

Revisioning The Political Nancy J Hirschmann,2018-03-05 Feminist scholars have been remaking the landscape in political theory and in this important book some of the most important feminist political theorists provide reconstructions of those concepts most central to the tradition of political philosophy The goal is nothing less than the construction of a blueprint for a positive feminist theory Many of these papers are completely new others are extensions of important earlier work two are reprints of classic papers The result is a progress report on the continuing feminist project to re envision traditional political theory As such it constitutes essential reading not only for feminist thinkers but also for traditional philosophers and political theorists who will need to come to terms with these contemporary critiques and re readings

Revisioning Christology Dr Oliver D Crisp, 2013-06-28 Constructive contemporary theology requires serious engagement with the theologians of the past This book offers a series of studies in the Christology of key representatives in the Reformed tradition engaging their thought for contemporary dogmatics Thinkers from each of the five centuries in which Reformed theology has flourished are represented John Calvin John Owen Jonathan Edwards William Shedd Donald Baillie and Kathryn Tanner each of whom in different ways challenge conventional accounts of Christology The book is organized thematically linking historic and contemporary discussions of Christology in theology and philosophy by engaging the thinking of these theologians in a collegial way using their work as means of promoting constructive systematic theology today Oliver Crisp presents an important contribution to broadening our understanding of Reformed theology by showing how important theologians have taken views often at odds with textbook accounts of the tradition Written in an accessible style this book will appeal to a wide range of readers including upper level undergraduates graduate students and scholars of Christian theology philosophy and religious studies
