Drinkwater, Growing Up A Story of the Girlhood of Judith Mackenzie I was not sure whether it were to write a book or to teach or to go as a foreign missionary I think I hoped it would be the foreign missionary because that was the most self sacrificing The book was all one great joy The teaching was absorbing but I must go away to study I was afraid to go away I did not like to go away from Bensalem I would miss my mother away from Bensalem and you and all the parsonage and the whole village But I thought I was called as called as Roger was to preach or any woman saint or heroine who had done a great thing You cannot think what it was to me It made me old I wanted God to speak out of Heaven and tell me what to do It began to lose its selfishness after that The first thing that began to shake my confidence was something Mrs Lane said that afternoon she talked to Jean and me about what women were doing and could do She did not make woman s work attractive she took the heart out of me I did not know why she should do that I knew better all the time I knew what women had done and were doing I knew she was doing a noble work literary work work in prisons temperance work the instances she gave me seemed trivial as if she were laughing at me But something opened my eyes I felt that I might be disobedient to my heavenly vision that I was looking up into the heavens for my call and the voice might be all the time in my ear That was the night I came back here and found you so cozy and satisfied under your own roof tree with the voice in your ear and the work in your hand The world went away from me I stayed I am glad I stayed My only trouble is and it is a real trouble that God did not care for my purpose or my prayers that he has let them go as if they never entered into his mind I thought they were in his heart as well as mine Becoming a Blessed Church N. Graham Standish,2016-05-08 Pastor and author N Graham Standish describes how a church that is open to God s purpose presence and power can claim God s blessing Standish shares the story of Calvin Presbyterian Church in Zelienople Pennsylvania and its journey to become a spiritually deep congregation one that is inwardly and outwardly healthy spiritually psychologically physically and relationally Becoming a Blessed Church will help you discern God s purpose and the path God is calling your congregation to walk This book will help you find Christ in your midst and become aware of the many ways the blessings of God s Spirit flow through your congregation This second edition includes three new practical chapters that answer the questions the author is most frequently asked how to effectively run a group discernment practice how to create an effective small group program and how to set a church vision in a new direction that actually works Housewives League Magazine ,1916
