Black Jean-Paul Rocchi, 2018-08-24 A critique of theory through literature that celebrates the diversity of black being The Desiring Modes of Being Black explores how literature unearths theoretical blind spots while reasserting the legitimacy of emotional turbulence in the controlled realm of reason that rationality claims to establish This approach operates a critical shift by examining psychoanalytical texts from the literary perspective of black desiring subjectivities and experiences This combination of psychoanalysis and the politics of literary interpretation of black texts helps determine how contemporary African American and black literature and queer texts come to defy and challenge the racial and sexual postulates of psychoanalysis or indeed any theoretical system that intends to define race gender and sexualities The Desiring Modes of Being Black includes essays on James Baldwin Sigmund Freud Melvin Dixon Essex Hemphill Assotto Saint and Rozena Maart The metacritical reading they unfold interweaves African American culture Fanonian and Caribbean thought South African black consciousness French theory psychoanalysis and gender and queer studies Being and Becoming in the Classroom Wolff-Mich Roth, 2002-05-30 Highlights the current chasm between teacher education theories praxeologies and the actual experience of teaching praxis Many traditional teacher education programs emphasize teaching based on reflection and deliberation yet when a new teacher is in a unique situation there is not always time to step back and look at it objectively Through Roth's extensive experience as a teacher he has learned that a teacher must live in the heat of the moment but also develop room to maneuver in the moment These skills come only by actually being in the classroom working at the elbow of experienced teachers and discussing the events of the day with other teachers Roth develops his theory by introducing the previously ignored element of temporality in teaching When there is no time out for reflection a teacher must develop on the spot decision making skills In part one he presents the ideas of being in the classroom with students and being with other teachers Other concepts that emerge are habitus perceptions and expectations that lead to action Spielraum room to maneuver in situations and relationality knowing how to act without reflection based on student teacher rapport In part two Roth asserts that when novice teachers coteach and engage in subsequent cogenerative dialoguing with seasoned professionals they are in the process of becoming in the classroom Teachers college students majoring in education and professors will all benefit immensely from this book Real Men Eat Puffer Fish Robert Twigger, 2010-12-30 The Dangerous Book for Men not boys Every man has faced that emergency where a car needs to be broken into and hot wired just as every man needs to be able to mix the perfect dry Martini The world is a dangerous and unpredictable place a man never knows when he might be called upon to start a fire with just a coke can win at croquet or drive a T34 tank Twigger has plenty of experience of facing down bears building coracles swimming with sharks now he shows every man how to cook a hedgehog commit hara kiri and land a Boeing 747
