Reasoning With The Charter:

Reasoning with the Charter Leon E. Trakman, 1991-01-01 The Empirical Gap in Jurisprudence David Muttart, 2007-01-01 David Muttart has made a systematic study encompassing every judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada between 1950 and 2003. Muttart uses the results of this systematic examination to test the validity of extant jurisprudential theories.

Understanding and Assessing the Charter School Movement Joseph Murphy, Catherine Dunn Shiffman, 2002 Shows how charter schools have changed in the years since their development looks at their role in educational reform and provides background information and details for the future of chartering.

Religious Charter Schools Lawrence D. Weinberg, 2007-08-01 This book explores the constitutionality of religion based charter schools. The method of analysis uses hypothetical charter schools to answer legal questions. The answers are grounded in law using the latest precedent. The background material before examining charters sets forth both the legal and policy contexts of religious charter schools. The legal context includes a detailed analysis of the Establishment Clause of the U.S. Constitution focusing on the most recent Supreme Court cases on that topic. The policy analysis examines the normative and structural dimensions of charter schools which are then compared with voucher programs. The historical, political, and educational contexts of charter programs are also examined. The book concludes that charter schools present an opportunity for parents and communities to form charter schools that will accommodate their beliefs; however, the constitution does not allow them to form schools that endorse their beliefs.

It explores the theory, content, role, and function of general principles in EU law to better understand general principles as a mechanism for the substantive openness of the EU legal order, as well as for cross-fertilization and coherence of legal orders. National Constitutions and EU Integration Stefan Griller, Lina Papadopoulou, Roman Puff, 2022-08-25 Do individual constitutions and the legal cultures underlying them pose an obstacle to future EU integration? This ambitious collection brings together reports from all the European Member States systematically setting out their individual constitutional guarantees. In doing so, it tracks possible roadblocks to the future evolution of European integration. Written by recognised authorities in each Member State, it offers an authoritative and rigorous overview of the European Union's constitutional
