Portraits of God Allan Coppedge, 2009-09-20 What is God like Answering this is the great quest of human existence Because God is so different from us we struggle to describe him While doctrinal statements about God certainly have their place in Christian understanding the Bible more often uses God's actions and roles to help us know him better Indeed some of the most helpful insights in Scripture arise when God is compared to something else a rock an eagle or a tower And many human metaphors taken from the world of actions and relationships bring us even closer to understanding of God In Portraits of God Allan Coppedge suggests we look carefully at God as our Father Redeemer King Judge Priest and Creator These portraits taken together give us an understanding of the Holy One for which no single category is adequate These images work their way through the whole of Scripture They are the doorway allowing us into the mysteries of God's very being In Portraits of God Coppedge offers a comprehensive survey picturing a God who wants to be known personally and who has profoundly communicated himself Coppedge finds the inexhaustible nature of God to be one of holiness reflected in and best described by the language of diverse roles Approaching God in this way transforms us as churches and individuals to reflect God's own holy character This is a book for students pastors and churchgoers alike Anyone desiring to know more deeply and wholly the Christian God revealed in the Bible will find in Portraits of God a treasure of scholarship and truth

With All Your Heart A. Craig Troxel, 2020-02-04 Here is a book to be welcomed enthusiastically to be read carefully and to be returned to frequently Sinclair B Ferguson In our world we use the word heart to refer to our emotions But the Bible uses the word heart to refer to the governing center of life We need to grasp the true meaning of the heart in order to better understand ourselves our sin and our need for redemption As we rediscover the heart as the source of all our thoughts fears words and actions we will discover principles and practices for orienting our hearts to truly love and obey God with all that we are
