Redeeming The Time A Political Theology Of The Environment:

Redeeming the Time Stephen Bede Scharper, 1998-06-01 A thoughtful and interesting contribution to environmental theology literature Choice Richly informative and provocative Review for Religious Stephen Bede Scharper has added a significant new book to the growing collection of Christian ecotheological offerings an admirable job of summarizing the main strands of Christian environmental theologies and highlighting the most valuable contributions of each heartfelt There is much to celebrate in this book presents a comprehensible and accessible guide to the major varieties of what Scharper calls Christian ecological theology In this book he succeeds not just in coherently summarizing a number of the most important voices in ecotheology but also in giving us a blueprint for the changed consciousness necessary to motivate a conversion from our destructive earth damaging behavior to a more earth friendly way of living Worldviews Redeeming the time : a political theology of the environment Stephen B. Scharper, 1998 Various current paradigms and remedying or redeeming their inadequacies A Political Theology of Nature Peter Scott, 2003-03-06 This book argues that the modern separation of humanity from nature can be traced to the displacement of the triune God Locating the source of our current ecological crisis in this separation Peter Scott argues that it can only be healed within theology through a revival of a Trinitarian doctrine of creation interacting with political philosophies of ecology Drawing insights from deep ecology ecofeminism and social and socialist ecologies Scott proposes a common realm of God nature and humanity Both Trinitarian and political the theology of this common realm is worked out by reference to Christ and Spirit Christ s resurrection is presented as the liberation and renewal of ecological relations in nature and society the movement of the Holy Spirit is understood as the renewal of fellowship between humanity and nature through ecological democracy and the Eucharist is proposed as the principal political resource Christianity offers for an ecological age Environment Glenn Adelson, James Engell, Kevin P. Bell, 2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan s Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment's particularities mystical experience is no longer relegated to so called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love With this connection in place mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political

The Tao of Liberation Mark Hathaway, Leonardo Boff, 2009 Drawing on insights from quantum physics deep ecology and the new cosmology they articulate a new vision of liberating action Hathaway and Boff lay out a path of spiritual renewal ecological transformation and authentic liberation

What's Left? Mary Jo Weaver, 1999 What's Left employs a thoroughly in house approach in which self identified liberal Catholics examine various facets of liberal Catholicism this book explores some of the most prominent threads of leftist Catholic aspiration and dissent Choice What's Left is the most comprehensive study to date of liberal American Catholics in the generation following the second Vatican council 1962-65 The main features of liberal American Catholicism feminist theology and practice contested issues of sexual conduct new social locations of academic theology liturgy spirituality ministry race and ethnicity and public Catholicism are presented here in their historical and social contexts

Cause for Hope Bill Phipps, 2007 Global society stands at a crossroads one of those critical moments in the history of humankind The simple fact is that the Earth cannot support our rampant overuse and misuse of its abundant gift of resources Not only are we depleting the forests oceans soil we are also poisoning the air and polluting our rivers lakes and oceans We are living far beyond our means Life as we are creating it is measurably and extravagantly unsustainable Bill Phipps All societies live by their stories This provocative book from one of the most provocative leaders in the Canadian church challenges the governing story that has shaped and defined Western culture and society a story that has manifested itself in ecological destruction war and the obscene military expenditures that go with it unprecedented consumerism economic disparity between rich and poor mistreatment of non white cultures and races sexism and fear Clearly it is time for a new story Bill Phipps takes on the task of outlining the core themes of this new story with the passion and vision of a modern day prophet He shows us the deeply spiritual nature of the issues and choices that confront us Recognizing that the challenges we face are inherently interconnected and can no longer be treated in isolation from each other his approach is multi faceted touching on all aspects of life including the role of the arts in bringing about transformation As a culture and as a society we do indeed stand at a crossroads one of those rare grace moments when we are granted the opportunity to choose our future So the question remains before us Will we choose the way of death or the way of new life Cause for Hope is part warning cry part visionary exploration part encouragement for the journey As such it is itself a cause for hope Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion making this book a valuable resource for study group use
