Pastor Kenneth H. Carter Jr., 2012-11-01 Carter writes a piece which will stir the sympathies of pastors thwarted by their own efforts to emulate a congregation's successful predecessor Within months these pastors see little success as fatigue and burn out set in All Christians are graced with specific and distinctive spiritual gifts Too often pastors forget that God has given them particular gifts for ministry While all pastors must attend to the different tasks of congregational ministry they need to discover those functions for which they have been particularly gifted When they begin to make these gifts the focus of their ministry then deep personal satisfaction and connection with others results This book is written to help pastors overcome the false belief that if their ministry is to succeed it must emulate that of a high profile orator Carter explains that when we make our distinctive gifts the center of our ministry we lose the illusion that we are in control and instead trust that God will complement us with others gifts to meet the needs of God's people Key Features includes a consumer guide to spiritual gift inventories resource lists including retreat centers congregations and publications Key Benefits Provides pastors a biblical theological framework for understanding ministerial gifts Grace for Service Kenneth G.

Radant, 2023-01-11 Grace for Service is a thoroughly researched biblically grounded personally transformational study of the Holy Spirit's enabling grace for ministry designed to equip leaders who guide the church in its stewardship of God's gifts and to enrich the understanding of Christians who want to go deeper in this important subject This book serves up an exceptionally broad buffet of historical biblical and theological information to help the reader engage the many questions associated with spiritual gifts In the process it offers a fresh perspective that transcends typical find and use your gift teaching and moves beyond the long standing battles over miraculous gifts It calls the follower of Jesus to view all dimensions of life through the lens of the Spirit's gracious equipping and enabling work Grace for Service is a must have resource for anyone who teaches about the Spirit's gifts in church and school settings and an essential read for believers who are passionate about the topic but dissatisfied with what they currently know Rediscovering Our Spiritual Gifts
