Reflections And Perspectives:

Fieldwork in Geography: Reflections, Perspectives and Actions Rod Gerber, Goh Kim Chuan, 2013-03-14

Geographers regard fieldwork as a vital instrument for understanding our world through direct experience for gathering basic data about this world and as a fundamental method for enacting geographical education The range of international geography and educational experts who contributed to this volume has demonstrated that the concept of fieldwork has a considerable history in the field of geography They have demonstrated that the theoretical aspects of fieldwork have been interpreted differently in regions around the world but the importance of fieldwork remains strong globally A fresh look at the pedagogic implications for fieldwork in formal education offers ideas both for promoting it in geographical education and for maintaining its place in the geography curriculum Audience Forward looking geographers and educators now recognise that alternative strategies especially those involving the use of information technology should be developed to reaffirm the centrality of fieldwork in geographical and wider education Reflections and perspectives Elmer Daniel

Discourses on Professional Learning Christian Harteis, Andreas Rausch, Jürgen Seifried, 2014-06-30 This book analyses and elaborates on learning processes within work environments and explores professional learning It presents research indicating general characteristics of the work environment that support learning as well as barriers to workplace learning Themes of professional development lifelong learning and business organisation emerge through the chapters and contributions explore theoretical and empirical analyses on the boundary between working and learning in various contexts and with various methodological approaches Readers will discover how current workplace learning approaches can emphasise the learning potential of the work environment and how workplaces can combine the application of competence that is working with its acquisition or learning Through these chapters we learn about the educational challenge to design workplaces as environments of rich learning potential without neglecting business demands Expert authors explore how learning and working are both to be considered as two common aspects of an individual's activity Complexity significance integrity and variety of assigned work tasks as well as scope of action interaction and feedback within its processing turn out to be crucial work characteristics amongst others revealed in these chapters Part of the Professional and Practice based Learning series this book will appeal to anyone with an interest in workplaces as learning environments those within government community or business agencies and within the research communities in education psychology sociology and business management will find it of great interest Lupenga Mphande Dike Okoro, 2021-04-26 Dike Okoro analyzes the various manifestations of ecocriticism and political activism in the poetry of Lupenga Mphande who is arguably Africa's first poet to explore the existence of territorial cults and natural shrines This book is recommended for students and scholars seeking new interpretations of the African experience in contemporary world literature Wisconsin International Law

Journal, 2006 The Principles of Architectural Perspective George Alexander Thomas Middleton, 1919 Exploring Betty A. Reardon's Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert, 2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon's peace education theory and intellectual legacy. The guiding question throughout the book is: How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education? In an attempt to find answers, the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry: 1. Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education; 2. Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice; and 3. Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices. A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage.

Communion Ecclesiology and Social Transformation in African Catholicism Idara Otu, 2020-05-15 In this book Idara Otu, one of the new theological voices from Africa, rethinks ecclesiology in the changing context of a wounded and broken world. What does the Catholic Church in Africa look like post-Vatican II? This book creatively illuminates the intrinsic connections between ecclesial communion and social mission in the changing face of the church in Africa. The multiple levels of dialogue in African Catholicism, especially in the reception and contextualization of conciliar teachings, is redefining world Christianity. The author explores how dialogue, synodality, inculturation, leadership, human security, social issues, and social transformation are shaping the identity and mission of the church in Africa. This book also engages recent magisterial teachings and diverse theological voices in developing the praxis for the emergence of particular churches in Africa that are defined by the joys and sorrows of God's people. The book calls for a Triple C church: revitalized through Conversion, Communion, and Conversation, as well as fostering integral and sustainable social transformation in Africa's contested march toward modernity.

Good Practices in Doctoral Supervision Mar Reguero, Joan Josep Carvajal, Maria Ercilia García, Mireia Valverde, 2017-01-01 Within the European context, there are many initiatives for PhD supervisory training already in existence, but a more systematic approach to this task would be needed. In this landscape, we took the initiative of organizing an informal meeting for experts with an interest and expertise on PhD supervisory training: the Tarragona Think Tank on PhD supervisory training challenges and good practices, hosted by University Rovira i Virgili (URV) Tarragona. This event allowed both the presentation of individual university experiences and the undertaking of a collective reflection on challenges, impact assessment, and the visualisation of an ideal future for PhD supervisory training. Noting the need for more concerted efforts and practices, the present book is precisely a first tangible outcome of this concerted effort. Looking forward, we expect that this book can help setting the basis for the development of a network or alliance between the participating organisations and an ongoing effort aimed at bringing the professionalization of doctoral supervisors to the forefront in education policy at the university level. In sum, we hope that this contribution can help materialising ideas into actions.
