Reflections Of A Country Doctor:

Reflections of a Country Doctor Jimmie Ashcraft M. D.,2011-07 This book contains my reflections upon my 26 years as an old time generalist family physician in rural America It is merely a collection of stories that depict some of my many experiences over the years The stories mirror those of many of my generalist colleagues who have experienced the trenches of rural primary care My stories span the breadth and depth of the discipline of rural family medicine Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making house calls to providing emergency room care Some are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad JIMMIE ASHCRAFT M D Doctor Ashcraft is a graduate of the University of Oregon Medical School He was a member of the clinical staff of the University of Washington Medical School for 30 years Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay live in Montana They have three grown children and six grandchildren The Next

Prescription M. D. Jimmie Ashcraft,2011-08-01 I have been most gratified with the positive response to my first book Reflections of a Country Doctor Many readers encouraged me to write another book that told the rest of my story This book contains some of my experiences during my premedical and medical training years and more of my experiences during my twenty six years as an old time family physician in rural America Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from experiencing the joys of pediatrics to the frustrations of medical errors from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making routine home visits to providing life ordeath emergency care In keeping with the format of Reflections of a Country Doctor some of the stories are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad Doctor Ashcraft grew up as one of four brothers in a poor family in Montana Despite a difficult childhood he managed to work his way through college He was the first graduate from Eastern Montana College to graduate from a medical school He graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School After his medical training he served in the National Health Service Corps Doctor Ashcraft practiced as a family physician in Sidney Montana for twenty five years Afterward he was a member of the faculty of the Montana Family Medicine Residency a program that he helped to develop Doctor Ashcraft was a member of the clinical faculty of the University of Washington Medical School for thirty years He is a Lifetime Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay still live in Montana They have three children and six grandchildren The Next Prescription M. D. Jimmie Ashcraft,Jimmie Ashcraft

MD,2011-08-01 I have been most gratified with the positive response to my first book Reflections of a Country Doctor Many readers encouraged me to write another book that told the rest of my story This book contains some of my experiences during my premedical and medical training years and more of my experiences during my twenty six years as an old time family physician in rural America Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from experiencing the joys of pediatrics to the frustrations of medical errors from performing surgery to becoming involved in one's community and from making routine home visits to providing life or death emergency care. In keeping with the format of Reflections of a Country Doctor some of the stories are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad. Doctor Ashcraft grew up as one of four brothers in a poor family in Montana. Despite a difficult childhood he managed to work his way through college. He was the first graduate from Eastern Montana College to graduate from a medical school. He graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School. After his medical training he served in the National Health Service Corps. Doctor Ashcraft practiced as a family physician in Sidney, Montana, for twenty-five years. Afterward he was a member of the faculty of the Montana Family Medicine Residency, a program that he helped to develop. Doctor Ashcraft was a member of the clinical faculty of the University of Washington Medical School for thirty years. He is a Lifetime Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians. Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay still live in Montana. They have three children and six grandchildren.

The Country Doctor's Tales Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-20 In the heart of rural America where communities thrive amidst the tranquility of nature there exists a unique breed of healthcare providers known as country doctors. These dedicated individuals are the unsung heroes of medicine providing compassionate care and unwavering support to those who need it most. Step into the world of a country doctor and embark on a heartwarming journey filled with unforgettable encounters and life-changing experiences. Witness the resilience of the human spirit as patients navigate illness, adversity, and the challenges of living in remote areas. Discover the power of empathy and compassion as the doctor forms deep bonds with their patients, becoming a source of comfort and guidance through life's many trials. Through laughter and tears, triumphs and tragedies, the country doctor learns invaluable lessons about life, death, and the indomitable spirit of the human heart. They witness the changing landscape of rural healthcare, the impact of technology, and the ongoing struggle to maintain access to quality care in underserved communities. Yet amidst the challenges, they remain steadfast in their commitment, adapting to new circumstances while preserving the traditions and values that have long defined rural medicine.
