Nora Frye, Janet Schultz Panger

Reflections Of A Schoolmistress:

Reflections of a Schoolmistress Nora Frye, Janet Schultz Panger, 1994 This book compiles reminiscences and letters of Nora Frye a native of Minnesota and a teacher The book spans Miss Frye s lifetime beginning with her childhood on the family farm near Elk River Minnesota in the 1870s The remembrances continue through her days at the University of Minnesota and her early years of teaching in a number of small towns in Minnesota and conclude with her travels in Europe and postretirement experiences following 46 years of teaching At a time when many women were fortunate to finish grade school she completed a college degree and more When most women were dependent on the men in their families for support she remained unmarried and supported herself by teaching even helping others in her family when needed Although she did not set out consciously to chronicle the years bracketing the turn of the century Miss Frye has supplied the ambience of those times From the perspective of a midwestern woman with rural roots to the broader cosmopolitan view of one eventually at home in New York City and Europe the essence of this period of time is recaptured by recounting selected episodes and personalities Her writing speaks of a life dedicated to teaching but even more to being a lifelong learner Her memoirs include personal recollections of Maria Sanford one of two women professors at the University of Minnesota in the late 1800s and of poet Vachel Lindsay Includes photographs TD Reflections on Language Teacher Identity Research Gary

Barkhuizen, 2016-11-10 Reflections on Language Teacher Identity Research is the first book to present understandings of language teacher identity LTI from a broad range of research fields Drawing on their personal research experience 41 contributors locate LTI within their area of expertise by considering their conceptual understanding of LTI and the methodological approaches used to investigate it The chapters are narrative in nature and take the form of guided reflections within a common chapter structure with authors embedding their discussions within biographical accounts of their professional lives and research work Authors weave discussions of LTI into their own research biographies employing a personal reflective style This book also looks to future directions in LTI research with suggestions for research topics and methodological approaches This is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in language teacher identity as well as language teaching and research more generally The Power of Reflection in Teacher Education and Professional Development Fred Korthagen, Ellen Nuijten, 2022-05-11 Based on years of extensive research on teacher development this book offers a practical introduction to the concept of teacher reflection demonstrating how student teachers can engage with reflective learning from their teaching and classroom experiences in a systematic and inspiring way Providing practical models and guidelines for use in the classroom renowned teacher educators Fred Korthagen and Ellen Nuijten outline various strategies for promoting reflection and illustrate how a deeper form of reflection core reflection enhances awareness of professional identity and supports the dismantling of inner obstacles therefore enhancing social justice and empowering diverse student populations The authors demonstrate how a trajectory for learning can be designed to develop key competencies as well as the role played by university and school based teacher educators in supporting teachers self directed reflection Featuring a variety of tools that support professional growth this unique text demystifies the area of teacher reflection helping to provide concrete and inspiring examples for how to strengthen professional identity based on everyday challenges faced by practitioners The Power of Reflection in Teacher Education and Professional Development is therefore an essential guide for students in service teachers and teacher educators alike as well as for anyone in the helping professions
