Spooky Technology explores our understanding of the invisible technologies in our everyday lives from objects with intelligence to systems in our homes that talk to us and each other The book is an inventory of spooky technologies compiled by Carnegie Mellon students reviewing work across art design HCI psychology human factors research and other fields that has been done in this field or adjacent to it both historically and more recently with commentary essays and interviews with creators and artists We often hear that the technologies in our everyday lives would appear to be magic and potentially terrifying to people in the past instantaneous communication with people all over the world access to a vast ever growing resource of human knowledge right there in the palm of our hand objects with intelligence that can sense and talk to us and each other But rarely are these otherworldly dimensions of technologies explored in more detail There is an often unspoken presumption that the march of progress will inevitably mean we all adopt new practices and incorporate new products and new ways of doing things into our lives all cities will become smart cities all homes will become smart homes But these systems have become omnipresent without our necessarily understanding them They are not just black boxes but invisible entities in our homes and everyday lives which work through hidden flows of data unknown agendas imaginary clouds mysterious sets of rules which we perhaps dismiss as algorithms or even AI without really understanding what that means On some level the superstitions and sense of wonder and ways of relating to the unknown and the supernatural deities spirits ghosts which humanity has felt in every culture throughout history have not gone away but started to become transferred and transmuted into new forms

Beneath the Moon's Reflection Mackenzie Lodimus, 2024-07-21 Part I Battling the Como's Beneath the Moon's Reflection opens in the serenity of night with the moon hanging like a silver coin on a velvet canvas throwing a meditative radiance over the protagonist's house You this lone figure stand by the window a vessel of churning emotions exposed to the thoughtful silence of 2 a.m During these silent hours the mind confronts its fundamental defects and issues For as long as you can remember life has been a never ending game of ping pong alternating between thrilling successes and shattering failures Each effort has left you exhausted and scarred and the desire to give up has persisted in your mind However a persistent light within you refuses to extinguish Fueled by a symphony of tears laughter joy and sadness this flame symbolizes your unwavering determination In this very introspective section you begin on a trip through the maze of your emotions The moon a silent witness to your evolution symbolizes optimism and rejuvenation Through meaningful discussions with the cosmos you realize that happiness cannot be found but must be produced from the inside You know that life is not a war to be won but an adventure to be had In its immensity the universe is not an opponent but rather a companion on your journey providing you with the insight you need to pursue your route to pleasure Part II The Beauty of Death The narrative switches to investigate the concept of death which is typically cloaked in fear and mystery However this book section approaches death from a new angle seeing it as a potential source of beauty and release Death while often regarded as the great unknown can also be viewed as a respite from the difficulties and tribulations of daily life It is the ultimate freedom freeing people from their commitments in life and giving them a new perspective on the inevitability of death The inquiry broadens to encompass the Rules of Death a sophisticated set of guidelines that regulate this newfound knowledge Death like life has its own set of rules The taboo of willfully killing oneself is central to these ideas emphasizing the significance of accepting the natural flow of existence This prohibition encourages people to recognize their path s importance and let the universe unfold as it should In this section the protagonist explores the emotional and spiritual dimensions of death recognizing the loss and pain that come with losing loved ones However by acknowledging the beauty of death sorrow can be transformed into a celebration of life and the journey beyond this world
