Reflections On School Integration Colloquium Proceedings:

Reflections on School Integration Mokubung O. Nkomo, Carolyn McKinney, Linda Chisholm, 2004 School integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically Integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies It means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture It means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment In short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion And the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in South Africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world This book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in October 2003 attended by leading South African and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change

Learning from Difference: Comparative

Accounts of Multicultural Education Joseph Lo Bianco, Aydin Bal, 2016-03-30 This book analyses the experiences of multicultural education in nine very different international settings uncovering insights from a vast variety of educational contexts Taking a multi critical approach in reporting and discussing problems faced by increasingly multicultural and multilingual societies the nine case studies reflect radically different assumptions about what counts as difference and what should be the appropriate ways for education systems to respond to differences While each country's approach seems unique analysis of the divergent treatments of internal population diversity elicits a genuinely global instance of the increasingly shared phenomenon of cultural pluralism Discussing various successes and failures of policy enactment theory pedagogy and management of diversity the book isolates both the differences and similarities in the unique geopolitical and socio historical contexts of the countries investigated A key value of the book is that it greatly expands the range of settings experiences epistemologies ontologies and practical experiences that are typically encountered in mainstream discussion of what counts as multicultural education In effect all societies are in some way dealing with difference this volume helps widen the scope of reflection and thus facilitates increased global learning from difference

Currere from Apartheid to Inclusion Shani Steyn, 2024-06-14

This volume demonstrates the instrumental use of Currere as a methodology to bring about Deracialisation through transformational learning by a white educator in Post Apartheid South Africa Offering an honest and vulnerable recognition of privilege and exclusivity it disrupts deep seated racial bias and assumptions unveils racial blind spots and confronts the discourse that South African white educators are overtly or covertly perpetuating systemic racism within schools Based on autoethnographic analyses of the author s lived educational experiences within the Apartheid regime it uses the theoretical concepts of Currere to initiate her journey towards Deracialisation and transform her current pedagogical practice In doing so the book demonstrates how critical self examination of underlying beliefs that lead to actions and how the past in this case being born raised and educated within the Apartheid era can influence one s teaching in ways that harm the educational development of culturally diverse learners Grappling with how autoethnographical experiences in a specific setting can inform current pedagogy and be used to bring about professional and personal transformation this book will be of interest to scholars postgraduate students and educational researchers with interests in curriculum theory race and education transformative learning Deracialisation and autoethnography
