

After Words

Because the smallness of our being is our only greatness.

Because one night I was in a room listening until only one heart beat.

Because in these last years I've worn and worn and nearly worn out my black funeral shoes.

Because the gesture of after words means the same thing no matter who speaks them.

Because faith belief forever
are only words, no matter.

Because matter disappears always and eventually.

Because action is not matter
but energy
that spent, changes being.

And if death, too, is a change of being perhaps action counts.

And if death is a land of unknowing,
perhaps we do well to live with uncertainty.

And if death is a forested land,
it would be good to learn trees.

And if death is a kingdom,
it would be good to practice service.

And if death is a foreign state
we should loosen allegiance to this one.

And if the soul leaves our body
then we must rehearse goodbye.
