

The background of the cover is a surrealist painting. It depicts two identical figures standing side-by-side on a dark, flat ground. They are wearing light-colored, long-sleeved shirts with dark trousers and are holding pistols in their right hands. The background features a body of water, distant hills, and a sky with a large, pale, cloudy area. A hot air balloon is visible in the upper right corner of the sky.

Signals Adrian Rice,1997-01-01 Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce,2000 With five Nobel Prize winners seven Pulitzer Prize winners and two Booker Prize winning novelists modern Irish writing has contributed something special and permanent to our understanding of the twentieth century Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century provides a useful comprehensive and pleasurable introduction to modern Irish literature in a single volume Organized chronologically by decade this anthology provides the reader with a unique sense of the development and richness of Irish writing and of the society it reflected It embraces all forms of writing not only the major forms of drama fiction and verse but such material as travel writing personal memoirs journalism interviews and radio plays to offer the reader a complete and wonderfully varied sense of Ireland s contribution our literary heritage David Pierce has selected major literary figures as well as neglected ones and includes many writers from the Irish diaspora The range of material is enormous and ensures that work that is inaccessible or out of print is now easily available The book is a delightful compilation including many well known pieces and captivating discoveries which anyone interested in literature will long enjoy browsing and dipping into Pupa Catherine Graham,2009 This book is a collection of poems about losing one s parents Intimate and colloquial the poems employ metaphor and rhythm evocatively imbuing daily events with transcendent relevance Irish Literature Mary Ketsin,2004 Irish literature s roots have been traced to the 7th 9th century This is a rich and hardy literature starting with descriptions of the brave deeds of kings saints and other heroes These were followed by generous veins of religious historical genealogical scientific and other works The development of prose poetry and drama raced along with the times Modern well known Irish writers include William Yeats James Joyce Sean Casey George Bernard Shaw Oscar Wilde John Synge and Samuel Beckett

The Cumulative Book Index ,1902 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 The Kagero Diary ,2020-08-06 Japan is the only country in the world where women writers laid the foundations of classical literature The Kager Diary commands our attention as the first extant work of that rich and brilliant tradition The author known to posterity as Michitsuna s Mother a member of the middle ranking aristocracy of the Heian period 794 1185 wrote an account of 20 years of her life from 954 74 and this autobiographical text now gives readers access to a woman s experience of a thousand years ago The diary centers on the author s relationship with her husband Fujiwara Kaneie her kinsman from a more powerful and prestigious branch of the family than her own Their marriage ended in divorce and one of the author s intentions seems to have been to write an anti romance one that could be subtitled I married the prince but we did not live happily ever after Yet particularly in the first part of the diary Michitsuna s Mother is drawn to record those events and moments when the marriage did live up to a romantic ideal fostered by the Japanese tradition of love poetry At the same time she also seems to seek the freedom to live and write outside the romance myth and without a husband Since the author was by inclination and talent a poet and lived in a time when poetry was a part of everyday social intercourse her account of her life is shaped by a lyrical consciousness The poems she records are crystalline moments of awareness that vividly recall the past This new translation of the Kager Diary conveys the long fluid sentences the complex polyphony of voices and the floating temporality of the original It also pays careful attention to the poems of the text rendering as much as possible their complex imagery and open ended quality The translation is accompanied by running notes on facing pages and an introduction that places the work within the context of contemporary discussions regarding feminist literature and the genre of autobiography and provides detailed historical information and a description of the stylistic qualities of the text
