Signs Of Recognition Powers And Hazards Of Representation In An Indonesian Society:

Signs of Recognition Webb Keane, 2023-09-01 Webb Keane argues that by looking at representations as concrete practices we may find them to be thoroughly entangled in the tensions and hazards of social existence This book explores the performances and transactions that lie at the heart of public events in contemporary Anakalang on the Indonesian island of Sumba Weaving together sharply observed narrative close analysis of poetic speech and valuable objects and far reaching theoretical discussion Signs of Recognition explores the risks endemic in representational practices An awareness of risk is embedded in the very forms of ritual speech and exchange The possibilities for failure and slippage reveal people s mutual vulnerabilities and give words and things part of their power Keane shows how the dilemmas posed by the effort to use and control language and objects are implicated with general problems of power authority and agency He persuades us to look differently at ideas of voice and value Integrating the analysis of words and things this book contributes to a wide range of fields including linguistic anthropology cultural studies social theory and the studies of material culture art and political economy Webb Keane argues that by looking at representations as concrete practices we may find them to be thoroughly entangled in the tensions and hazards of social existence This book explores the performances and transactions that lie at the heart of public ev

Southeast Asian Perspectives on Power Liana Chua, Joanna Cook, Nicholas Long, Lee Wilson, 2012-05-04 Southeast Asia has undergone innumerable far reaching changes and dramatic transformations over the last half century This book explores the concept of power in relation to these transformations and examines its various social cultural religious economic and political forms The book works from the ground up portraying Southeast Asians own perspectives conceptualizations and experiences of power through empirically rich case studies Exploring concepts of power in diverse settings from the stratagems of Indonesian politicians and the aspirations of marginal Lao bureaucrats to mass Prayer Power rallies in the Philippines self cultivation practices of Thai Buddhists and relations with the dead in Singapore the book lays out a new framework for the analysis of power in Southeast Asia in which orientations towards or away from certain models practices and configurations of power take centre stage in analysis In doing so the book demonstrates how power cannot be pinned down to a single definition but is woven into Southeast Asian lives in complex subtle and often surprising ways Integrating theoretical debates with empirical evidence drawn from the contributing authors own research this book is of particular interest to scholars and students of Anthropology and Asian Studies

Collecting Kamoro Karen Jacobs, 2011 The story of ethnographic collecting is one of cross cultural encounters This book focuses on collecting encounters in the Kamoro region of Papua from the earliest collections made in 1828 until 2011 Exploring the links between representation and collecting the author focuses on the creative and pragmatic agency of Kamoro people in these collecting encounters By considering objects as visualizations of social relations and as enactments of personal social or historical narrative this book combines filling a gap in the literature on Kamoro culture with an interest in broader questions that surround the nature of ethnographic collecting representation patronage and objectification War Owl Falling Markus Eberl,2025-03-18

Drawing on archaeological findings from the Maya lowlands this book shows how innovation and creativity led to social change in ancient societies Gambling Life Thomas M. Malaby,2010-10-01 The first ethnography devoted to the practice of gambling as its core subject Gambling Life considers the stakes of social action in one community on the island of Crete Backgammon caf s card clubs and hidden gambling rooms in the city of Chania provide the context for Thomas M Malaby to examine the ways in which people confront uncertainty in their lives He shows how the dynamics of gambling risk fate uncertainty and luck are reflected in other aspects of gamblers lives from courtship and mortality to state bureaucracy and national identity By moving beyond risk and fate as unexamined analytical categories Malaby presents a new model for research concerning indeterminacy seeing it as arising from stochastic performative and other sources Gambling Life questions the longstanding valorization of order and pattern in the social sciences Religion at Work in a Neolithic Society Ian Hodder,2014-02-10 A unique collaboration between archaeologists and a range of specialists in ritual and religion looking at the role of religion in early human societies The Routledge Companion to Northeast India Jelle J. Science Interrupted Timothy G. McLellan,2024-01-15 Science Interrupted examines how scientists in China pursue environmental sustainability within the constraints of domestic and international bureaucracies Timothy G McLellan offers a theoretical framework for analyzing the formal procedural work of Chinese bureaucracy work that is overlooked when China scholars restrict their gaze to the informal and interpersonal channels through which bureaucracy is often navigated Homing in on an agroforestry research organization in southwest China the author takes the experiences of the organization s staff in navigating diverse international funding regimes and authoritarian state institutions as entry points for understanding the pervasiveness of bureaucracy in contemporary science He asks What if we take the tools sensibilities and practices of bureaucracies seriously not only as objects of critique but as resources for re thinking scientific practice Extending a mode of anthropological research in which ethnography serves as source of theory as well as source of data Science Interrupted thinks with and not only against bureaucracy McLellan shows that ethnographic engagement with bureaucracy enables us to imagine more democratic and more collaborative modes of scientific practice

Prayer and Politics Peter van der Veer,2018-10-11 Prayer is an important religious practice that is rarely studied from the perspective of politics and yet it should be Though some forms of Protestantism teach that prayer should be individual and private this is an exception rather than a rule In many other religions and cultures the regulation of collective and public prayer cannot be separated from the complex world of politics Where is prayer allowed and where not Who can participate and who can't How should you pray and how shouldn't you Prayer is subject to a host of both written and unwritten political rules From the Pentecostal religious battle where prayer is both sword and shield against the Satanic Other to the relations between Islam and Christianity prayer as spiritual warfare can be found cross culturally and across the world This book brings together case studies of the political salience of prayer in Nigeria France India Russia and the United States It deals with Christian Muslim and Hindu practices In a world where religious tensions are ever present it reminds us of the intensely political nature of prayer This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Religious and Political Practice

The Globalisation of Charismatic Christianity Simon Coleman, 2000-10-02 This 2000 book analyses the revival of charismatic Protestant Christianity as an example of globalization Simon Coleman shows that along with many social movements these religious conservatives are negotiating their own interpretations of global and postmodern processes They are constructing an evangelical arena of action and meaning within the liminal chaotic space of the global The book examines globalization not only as a social process but also as an embodied practice involving forms of language and ritualized movement Charismatic Christianity is presented through its material culture art architecture and consumer products as well as its rhetoric and theology The book provides an account of the incorporation of electronic media such as television videos and the Internet into Christian worship Issues relating to the conduct of fieldwork in contexts of globalization are raised in an account which is also a major ethnography of a Faith ministry

The Ethnography of Communication Muriel Saville-Troike, 2008-04-15 The Ethnography of Communication presents the terms and concepts which are essential for discussing how and why language is used and how its use varies in different cultures Presents the essential terms and concepts introduced and developed by Dell Hymes and others and surveys the most important findings and applications of their work Draws on insights from social anthropology and psycholinguistics in investigating the patterning of communicative behavior in specific cultural settings Includes two completely new chapters on contrasts in patterns of communication and on politeness power and politics Incorporates a broad range of examples and illustrations from many languages and cultures for analyzing patterns of communicative phenomena

The Intimate Life of Dissent: Anthropological Perspectives Harini Amarasuriya, Tobias Kelly, Sidharthan Maunaguru, Galina Oustanova-Stjepanovic, Jonathan Spencer, 2020-09-01 The Intimate Life of Dissent examines the meanings and implications of public acts of dissent drawing on examples from ethnography and history Acts of dissent are never simply just about abstract principles but also come at great personal risk to both the dissidents and to those close to them Dissent is therefore embedded in deep complex and sometimes contradictory intimate relations This book puts acts of high principle back into the personal relations out of which they emerge and take effect raising new questions about the relationship between intimacy and political commitment It does so through an introduction and eight individual chapters drawing on examples including Sri Lankan leftists Soviet dissidents Tibetan exiles Kurdish prisoners British pacifists Indonesian student activists and Jewish peace activists
