Silent Music The Life Work And Thought Of St John Of The Cross:

Silent Music Robert A. Herrera, 2004 Beginning with a historical essay on the phenomenon of mysticism Silent Music chronicles St John's life story from his humble birth in 1542 through his career as a professional religious to his death in 1591 placing the man and his spirituality squarely in their historical cultural context Herrera probes the saint's rigorous life of contemplation and his classic writings on such subjects as union with God and the dark night of the soul clarifying St John's understanding of the mystical experience and paying particular attention to the notion of detachment and the recurring motifs of darkness flame and ascent in St John's writings His careful analysis of St John's thought is enriched with examples from philosophy psychology literature spirituality and art material not usually found in such a study

The Romancero of Saint John of the Cross Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2019-10-01 This book is a study of the nine short poems called romances composed by the Spanish mystic Saint John of the Cross San Juan de la Cruz The focus of the poems is the Trinity and their point of departure is the opening verses of the Gospel of John This is the first in depth English language analysis of these poems and looks at their literary historical scriptural theological and mystical elements It also ties these works to San Juan's better known lyrical poems and his prose commentaries It will appeal to anyone interested in Spanish mystical poetry and the sources that inform that poetry

Saint John of the Cross Donald Haggerty, 2022-03-14 Saint John of the Cross is the Church's premier teacher on contemplative prayer Catholic tradition even calls him the Mystical Doctor The sixteenth century Carmelite priest not only wrote four massive treatises on the spiritual life along with some of the finest poetry in the Spanish language but also worked alongside Teresa of Avila in renewing the Carmelite order Thérèse of Lisieux claimed she found no other spiritual reading that could satisfy her soul like John of the Cross Yet the volume and intensity of Saint John's work can make his teachings seem daunting even to trained theologians This book by Father Donald Haggerty author of The Contemplative Hunger and Contemplative Enigmas offers readers a unique step by step introduction to the way of contemplation as Saint John understood it and taught it a burning transformative intimacy with the God who made us

Furnished abundantly with quotations from across the Mystical Doctor's writings this guidebook confronts the mysteries difficulties and joys of prayer showing how silent contemplation prepares our hearts for an unspeakable love For all his theological richness Saint John gave practical realistic advice on navigating the world of contemplation and Father Haggerty a spiritual director for decades applies these principles to our lives today Whether you are new to prayer or have been praying since childhood you will find an illuminating and surprising companion in Saint John of the Cross Master of Contemplation been acclaimed saints and mystics most of them women who displayed prophetic traits In recent years the charismatic revival in both Protestant and Catholic circles has once again raised the question of the place and function of prophecy in Christianity Scholarly theological attitudes toward Christian prophecy range from modest recognition to contempt Mainstream systematic theology both Protestant and Catholic has mostly marginalized or ignored the gift of prophecy In this book however Niels Christian Hvidt argues that prophecy has persisted in Christianity as an inherent and continuous feature in the life of the church Prophecy never died he argues but rather proved its dynamism by mutating to meet new historical conditions He presents a comprehensive history of prophecy from ancient Israel to the present and closely examines the development of the theological discourse that surrounds it Throughout though there is always an awareness of the critical discernment required when evaluating the charism of prophecy The debate about prophecy Hvidt shows leads to some profound insights about the very nature of Christianity and the church For example some have argued that Christianity is a perfect state and that all that is required for salvation is acceptance of its doctrines Others have emphasized how God continues to intervene and guide his people onto the right path as the full implementation of God's salvation in Christ is still far away This is the position that Hvidt forcefully and persuasively defends and develops in this ambitious and important work

Wojciechowski,2025-02-11 Mysticism in an ancient and important aspect of the Christian faith yet it is highly misunderstood Due to obscure language and concepts not to mention occasionally eccentric personalities the mystics can be difficult to approach Once you peel back the layers of insider language however one begins to see a highly relatable group of people who were first and foremost concerned with tending to a personal and loving relationship with God Tending the Garden provides the reader with a basic definition of and clarity around several terms and practices of Christian mysticism as well as analyzing the lives and writings of important Christian mystics Jennifer Wojciechowski proposes some ways in which we as modern people living in an industrialized and disenchanted society can benefit from knowing Christian mystical history and engaging in spiritual practices related to Christian mysticism The book s aim is to demystify the mystics by making them understandable and relatable to modern believers In this era of disenchantment and religious decline Tending the Garden will introduce Christians to a rich and vibrant history of mystical prayer and relationship with God in order to spark curiosity and inspire a deeper spiritual life The book will serve as an accessible introduction to and thematic historical overview of Christian mysticism World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle,Salvador Oropesa,2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850
