Last Operas and Plays Gertrude Stein, 1995-05-22 When I see a thing it is not a play for me but when I write something that somebody else can see then it is a play for me Gertrude Stein In the more than seventy five plays Gertrude Stein wrote between 1913 and 1946 she envisioned a new dramaturgy beginning with her pictorial conception of a play as a landscape She drew into her plays the daily flow of life around her including the natural world and turned cities villages parts of the dramatic structure and even her own friends into characters She made punctuation and typography part of her compositional style and chose words for their joyful impact as sound and wordplay For Stein the writing process itself was always important in developing the continuous present at the heart of her work Long out of print Last Opera and Plays again makes available many of Stein s most important and most produced works As a special feature it also included her thought provoking essay Plays in which she reflects on the experience in the theater of seeing and hearing and on emotion and time Now nearly a half century after her death writes Bonnie Marranca in her introduction it is indisputable that Gertrude Stein is the great American modernist mind No American author has been more influential for more generations of artists in the worlds of theater dance music poetry painting and fiction

The first Dead Sea is a Jordanian lake of salt located in the heart of the Middle East. The second Dead Sea is located somewhere in the inner world south of the Atlantic Sea between Africa and Antarctica. It is a place of mystery and wonder for Jack William Thomas, a young British boy grieving with emotions from the loss of his mother while a distant father searches for means of communication with his son. The year of the Great War is born. Jack secretly boards his father's sailing ship during Germany's declaration of war upon the great British Isles. During a menacing storm, Jack is lost at sea before he is befriended by many different sea creatures including a beautiful girl named LiLi whom is half human and half fish. With daring escapes, Jack's life is quickly turned upside down when he's forced to engage in two very different wars at sea. Join Jack as both grueling wars come together in one grand dueling spectacle. Follow his newfound faith as it is tested in the blackness of a mad underworld filled with fiendish creatures preventing his return to his native Welsh homeland. This is Jack's first journey for all ages to enjoy. It is the very essence of a well-defined classic story of good versus evil set in the past, present, and future. A magical fable with a twist of faith to help guide the human spirit.
