Mother Daughter Sister Bride Rituals Of Womanhood:

Mother, Daughter, Sister, Bride Joanne Bubolz Eicher, Lisa Ling, 2006 In a compelling exploration of all things female Mother Daughter Sister Bride celebrates the defining connections among women and honors their differences Each chapter reveals the actions through which a woman connects with herself with her family with members of her community and with other women from quinceanera parties commemorating a Hispanic girl turning 15 to pre wedding henna ceremonies in the Middle East where the hands and feet of the bride and her party are lavishly painted for her special day Readers also will learn about such American traditions as the debutante ball as well as the coming of age rituals of Mende girls in Sierra Leone Gorgeous photographs from the National Geographic archive portray these women and their customs across time and around the world Remarkable stories and anecdotes from anthropologist Joanne Eicher complement the profiles written by Lisa Ling who as host of the weekly television program National Geographic Explorer has traveled the world observing and documenting rituals both ancient and emerging from her exceptional perspective as a journalist Together these accomplished authors provide a fascinating look at the historical cultural emotional and personal impact of women's rituals and ritual practices Provoking a range of emotions reverence sadness joy and shock Mother Daughter Sister Bride puts women in perspective in the modern world in multiple situations and on all levels Theology of The Womb Christy Angelle

Bauman, 2019-12-06 If it is true that God is a male then His Divinity or Deity is expressed in His masculinity Yet I am a woman and there are parts of my body such as my breasts my vagina and my womb that are telling a story about God that I have never learned or understood This is an exploration of the significance of a womb that must shed and bleed before it can create How will we engage our body which cyclically bleeds most of our life and can build and birth a human soul How will we honor the living womb that lives and sometimes dies within us This is a book about the theology found in the cycle of the womb which births both life and death Every day each one of us is invited to create and every day we make a decision knowing that from our creation can come death or life Women's voices have been silenced for a long time as society and the church has quieted their bodies Will we courageously choose to listen to the sound of your voice the song of your womb and speak for the world to hear Extravagances Cristina Giorcelli, Paula Rabinowitz, 2015-12-01 This final volume in the four volume series Habits of Being shows how the dialectic between everyday appearance and outrageous acts is mediated through clothing and accessories It considers how clothing and accessories can move quickly from the ordinary to the extravagant Employing many different approaches these essays explore how wearing an object a crown a flower an earring a corsage a veil even a length of material can stray beyond the bounds of the body on which it is placed into the discrepant territory of flagrantly excessive public signs of love status honor prestige power desire and display The varied contributions of scholars historians ethnographers literary and film critics and artists photographers sculptors writers weavers and embroiderers take up the threads of these forays into history psyche and aesthetics in surprising and useful ways With examples from around the world contributors address how the simple action of ornamenting the body even with something as common as a button are open to elaborate interpretations which themselves offer new understandings of human behavior and artistic endeavor When our habits of being receive close scrutiny they seem anything but habitual Contributors Mariapia Bobbiobi Camilla Cattarulla U of Rome Three Paola Colaiacomo Sapienza U of Rome Maria Damon Pratt Institute of Art Joanne B Eicher U of Minnesota Maria Giulia Fabi U of Ferrara Margherita di Fazio Adeena Karasick Fordham U Tarrah Krajnak Pitzer College Charlotte Nekola William Paterson U Victoria R Pass Maryland Institute College of Art Amanda Salvioni U of Macerata Maria Anita Stefanelli U of Rome Three
