Social Security Sources in Federal Records, 1934-1950 Abe Bortz, 1969 This report is intended as a tool for research students and writers interested in source material on the early years of social security programs in the United States It discusses the location and availability of Federal records that relate not only to the old age and survivors insurance program but also to public assistance unemployment compensation and other programs created by the Social Security Act of 1935 It carries the archival guide through 1949 which marks the end of one phase of social security history in the United States

Executive Office of the President Harold C. Relyea, 2011-04 The Exec Office of the Pres EOP consists of a group of federal agencies immediately serving the Pres Among the oldest of these are the White House Office where many of the Pres's personal assistants are located and the Office of Mgmt and Budget OMB Entities have been placed within the EOP by both pres action and by Congress Some components have endured others have been brief experiments Some have been transferred to other quarters of the exec branch others have been abolished This report reviews the particular circumstances of the creation of and underlying authority for the EOP and provides profiles of the entities that have been and still are located within that enclave This is a print on demand report Brief History of Emergency Powers in the U.S Harold Relyea, 1974 Soviet-American Dialogue on the New Deal Otis L. Graham, 1989 The study of U S history has flourished in the Soviet Union during the last several years with much research being published in Soviet journals Since those journals have very limited circulation in the West and since few U S scholars read Russian the Soviet vantage point on American history which often differs considerably from the view of U S scholars has been mostly inaccessible In this volume the first in a series scholars from both nations have cooperated to rectify part of that deficiency by examining one of the most significant decades in American history the 1930s Eleven essays by Soviet historians that were originally published in Soviet journals have been translated into English eight American historians have responded with commentary on those essays and the Soviets have written brief rejoinders The volume thus presents a unique opportunity to learn the contours of Soviet writings on the New Deal to take account of their preoccupations and conclusions and then to read the appraisals of noted U S scholars

A History of Government Public Relations in the United States Mordecai Lee, 2025-07-09 This book presents a history of public relations in the modern American administrative state Because government agencies have a democratic obligation to be open and transparent the practice of public relations by government is qualitatively different from that in business administration and nonprofit management The duty of government agencies to engage in public relations largely emerged during the Progressive era 1890 1920 It evolved significantly under President Franklin Roosevelt He wanted citizens to know about New Deal programs they qualified for During World War II federal PR encouraged civic participation in the war effort By the 1990s the media s traditional coverage of government faded requiring agencies to communicate in new ways Government PR continued evolving in the 21st century to take advantage of advances in technology This book relates to political science American history public administration and communication PR It is intended as a textbook by researchers and for academic libraries
