New Jersey Churchscape Encountering Eighteenth And Nineteenth Century:

The New Jersey Churchscape Frank L. Greenagel, 2001 Although best known as the Garden State New Jersey could also be called the Church State The state boasts thousands of houses of worship with more than one thousand still standing that were built in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Frank L Greenagel has photographed more than six hundred He has selected two hundred of these historic landmarks for an examination of why they are sited where they are and why they look the way they do Greenagel has sought out and included images of not only mainstream Christian churches but also Jewish synagogues as well as the places of worship of religious groups such as the Moravians the Church of the Brethren and the Seventh Day Baptists The photographs are arranged chronologically within sections on three major early settlement regions of the state the Hudson River the Delaware River and the Raritan Valley For each building Greenagel details the date of construction the cultural historic and religious influences that shaped it the architectural details that distinguish it and what purpose it currently serves

Respectable Methodism Daniel F. Flores, 2023-03-07 The Wesleyan Methodist movement entered American history as a fragment of British Methodism It quickly took on a new identity in the early republic and grew into a vibrant denomination in the nineteenth century The transitions from the rugged pioneer religion modeled by Bishop Francis Asbury to the urbane religion of industrial America was by design the goal of influential leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church Nathan Bangs was perhaps one of the most significant of such leaders He rose from obscurity to the ranks of power and influence by refining patterns of worship expanding denominational publishing and structuring ministerial education This study is concerned with the development of respectability in American Methodism It also explores questions on how Bangs and other leaders dealt with in house conflicts on issues related to race slavery and the poor

The Handbook of Linguistic Landscapes and Multilingualism Durk Gorter, Jasone Cenoz, 2025-03-12 The Handbook of Linguistic Landscapes and Multilingualism provides an in depth exploration of linguistic landscapes as a tool to understand multilingualism across diverse global contexts Edited by leading scholars Durk Gorter and Jasone Cenoz this authoritative volume brings together pioneering research on the evolving interactions between language place space and society Addressing both theory and practice this handbook serves as a unique lens into how linguistic landscapes reflect broader social political and educational dynamics In depth chapters address topics ranging from translanguaging and minority language ideologies to the application of linguistic landscapes in multilingual cities and classrooms Organised into three parts the book first establishes the theoretical and methodological foundations of linguistic landscape studies followed by detailed case studies of the relationship between linguistic landscapes and multilingualism in diverse social and geographic contexts The concluding section focusses on the educational implications of linguistic landscapes examining how schools and public spaces can be utilised for language learning and teaching Equipping readers to critically engage with multilingual practices in urban spaces educational settings and beyond The Handbook of Linguistic Landscapes and Multilingualism Introduces cutting edge methodologies socio political contexts and language learning through linguistic landscapes Covers emerging topics such as transgressive practices landscapes of affect and linguistic landscapes of protest and conflict Describes key theoretical concepts and identifies the interdisciplinary connections between ethnography sociolinguistics and discourse studies Explores innovative pedagogical approaches and translanguaging practices with an emphasis on empowering learners in multilingual environments Designed to fit seamlessly into curricula focused on multilingualism and language policy across a range of academic disciplines The Handbook of Linguistic Landscapes and Multilingualism is ideal for graduate students post graduate researchers and scholars in applied linguistics sociolinguistics education sciences language studies and social geography

Ruptured Landscapes Helen Sooväli-Sepping, Hugo Reinert, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2015-06-15 This volume breaks new ground in the study of landscapes both rural and urban The innovative notion of this landscape collection is rupture The book explores the ways in which societal economic and cultural changes are transforming the meanings and understandings of landscapes The text explores both how landscapes are contesting changes in society and changing society The volume combines empirically fine grained accounts of landscape rupture from different parts of the world with a sustained effort to explore rethink and analytically extend the concept of rupture itself The book therefore combines fresh empirical data with innovative theoretical approaches to open understanding of landscape as a dynamic living entity subject to abrupt change and unpredictable disruptions Through this dual reflection the volume is able to provide a powerful demonstration of the possibilities that are available for human action social change and material landscape to combine

Christianity and Belonging in Shimla, North India Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2020-10-01 This book explores the material religion of contemporary Shimla a vibrant postcolonial city famed for its colonial heritage set against the backdrop of the North Western Himalayas Jonathan Miles Watson demonstrates that this landscape is able to peacefully reconcile the apparent tensions of faith heritage and identity in a way that unseats traditional theories of religion politics and heritage It presents a mystery that is written in space through time the key to unlocking this mystery lies in clear view at the city s heart in the contemporary material religion that surrounds nominally Christian sacred sites Although the material religion centres on landscapes that are identifiable as Christian the book demonstrates that Hindus atheists and Sikhs all have a role to play in the mutually constitutive relations that lie at the centre of these knots of sacred entanglement This book builds upon over a decade of research to present an ethnographic account of devotional practices that speaks to contemporary developments in both the anthropology of Christianity and material religion Through this exploration the book answers the mystery of Shimla s postcolonial harmony while complicating established theories in the anthropology of religion postcolonial studies mythography heritage studies and material culture
