A Twilight Struggle Robert Kagan,1996 Kagan contends that the Carter administration s halfhearted intervention in Nicaragua was in response to American feelings of guilt for Washington s longtime support of the Somoza dynasty The Reagan era intervention on the other hand originated in American anxiety over Soviet encroachment in the Western hemisphere Kagan recounts how American popular aversion to the employment of U S military muscle in Central America led to the administration s covert support of the contras and goes on to explain how the clash between the Reagan White House and Congress over freedom fighter funding led to the Iran contra affair in 1987 Although the surprising electoral victory of Violeta Chamorro over the Sandinistas was widely recognized as a success for American policy the U S remains caught in a continuous cycle of intervention and withdrawal in Nicaragua according to Kagan As a member of the State Department s Policy Planning Staff Kagan was a direct participant in many of the events described in this authoritative and definitive account of U S Publisher s description Intervention Or Neglect Linda Robinson,1991 FROST copy 2 From the John Holmes Library collection
