New Directions In Mission And Evangelization Vol 3 Faith And Culture:

New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 3 Stephen B. Bevens, James A. Scherer, 2015-03-11 New Directions in Mission and Evangelization: Faith and culture James A. Scherer, Stephen B. Bevens, 1992 New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 3 contemplates the relationship between Christian faith and human culture Representing a variety of branches from the Christian church and located in areas around the world the contributors express their views on the question of inculturation in a text designed for classroom use in courses on mission and world Christianity In Our Own Tongues Peter C. Phan, 2015-02-19 Who is to be the primary evangelizer of Asia What Asian forms of worship and prayer are both authentically Christian and culturally appropriate In Our Own Tongues is reading for anyone interested in the emergence of world Christianity and its future in the 21st century From publisher's description A New Dawn, or the Fading of the Light? Culture and Evangelization Today John C. Gallagher C.S.B., 2019-12-05 Parents are disheartened when their children fall away from religious practice Pastoral workers wonder how they can get people to take religion seriously Something is at work that is puzzling but we can learn something useful about it A crucial factor is the role of culture To have faith is an act of individual responsibility but it can also be influenced by life around us For example popular opinion or concentration on making a fortune can make us deaf to any message about what lies beyond our immediate concerns This book is the fruit of the author's extensive study of how cultural forces influence attitudes Calling on long experience lecturing and in pastoral ministry he shows how cultural factors influence religious belief in our times and how ordinary believers can be active participants in creating a culture that opens us to God's word New Directions in Mission and Evangelization 2 James A. Scherer, 2015-03-24 The Human Condition Joe M. Kapolyo, 2013-05-14 Human beings are complex For all our contemporary knowledge and ability however wonderful and widely available people around the world face a crisis of human identity that calls into question the meaning of existence and the basis of moral behaviour Responding to these challenges Joe Kapolyo recognizes both the authority of the Bible which teaches that people are created in the image of God but also corrupted by rebellion and sin and the relevance of distinctly African perspectives on what it means to be human Although he reads these perspectives critically they lead him to reaffirm the biblical vision of redeemed human life in community in Christ This vision offers a solution to the crisis of identity experienced by people who have forgotten who they are and whose they are Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities Public Theology in an Age of World Christianity P.

Chung,2010-04-26 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God's mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God's narrative as it pertains to the realities of public sphere
