New Finnish Architecture:

New Finnish Architecture, 1968 Architecture Finlandaise Nouvelle Jussi Tiainen, 1996 The New Finnish Architecture Scott Poole, 1992 The New Finnish Architecture is a rich detailed and long overdue examination of Finland's vital contributions to twentieth century modern architecture over the last four decades Home to Alvar Aalto one of the greatest masters of the modern movement Finland has nurtured many dedicated and innovative architects who continue to wrestle with the lessons of modernism and the legacy of Aalto This volume presents the work of thirteen individual architects and firms and their engaging and provocative designs Among them are Arkkitehdit KY Juhani Pallasmaa Arto Sipinen Heikkinen Komonen ARRAK and MONARK the student collective that won the national competition for the Finnish pavilion at the 1992 World's Fair in Seville Each architect or firm is presented individually in well illustrated chapters Two essays by author Scott Poole give a historical overview of modern architecture in Finland the work of Aalto and the work of the rationalist school that followed him in the 1950s including Aulis Blomstedt Aarno Ruusuvuori and Juhani Pallasmaa among others The New Finnish Architecture continues Rizzoli's series on current international developments in architecture following The New French Architecture and The New Japanese Architecture Forthcoming volumes will feature Germany Spain Italy Mexico and Austria BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries Architecture Henry-Russell Hitchcock, 1987-01-01 This book examines a period which is far more than a prelude to the age of steel and concrete The first half century culminated in the bold iron and glass of the Crystal Palace There follows the creation of the modern styles of the era based on traditions of the past and finally in the 20th century Art Nouveau and the modern architects in their generations Perret Wright Gropius Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and others in many parts of the world Architecture in the Scandinavian Countries Marian Card Donnelly, 1992 The most complete survey of Nordic architecture available today The Details of Modern Architecture Edward R. Ford, 1990 Covering the period 1890-1932 this book focuses on various recognised masters explaining the detailing and construction techniques used in their buildings A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad, David Rifkind, 2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following

Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects

The Dream of the New World Elina Standertskjöld, 2010 In five chapters The Dream of the New World provides the reader with a picture of the American influence on Finnish architecture from the turn of the 20th century to the outbreak of the Second World War The book describes how the so called Americanism reached Finland via the Continent and what American phenomena appeared in urban planning following the First World War It explores the beginnings of industrial architecture in Finland in the shape of Fordism and Taylorism as well as the initial stages of prefabricated wooden houses and the connections between American cinema and Finnish Modernism during the 1930s

Nordic Modernism William C Miller, 2016-08-31 Modernism was instrumental in the development of twentieth and twenty first century Scandinavian architecture for it captured a progressive urbane character that was inextricably associated with and embraced the social programmes of the Nordic welfare states Recognized internationally for its sensitivity and responsiveness to place and locale and its thoughtful use of materials and refined detailing Nordic architecture continues to evolve and explore its modernist roots This new book covers the romantic and classical architectural foundations of Nordic modernism the development of Nordic Functionalism the maturing and expansion of Nordic modern architecture in the post war period international influences on Scandinavian modernism at the end of the twentieth century and finally the global and local currents found in contemporary Nordic architecture Superbly illustrated with 100 colour images
