The Books of Samuel, Volume 1 Cyril J. Barber, 2003-10-07 How I wish this book had been available years ago when I as a young minister tried to preach on the life of King Saul Dr Cyril Barber has given us a commentary on 1 Samuel that balances dependable information spiritual interpretation and practical application I predict that in years to come this volume will be a standard reference work for serious Bible students and careful expository preachers But there is no dull academic atmosphere in these pages The book is a joy to read Dr Barber makes ancient history exciting and practical and he does so without spiritualizing the text You will enjoy using this book It will open up new facets of truth for you to receive and apply in your own life and then share with others From the Foreword by Warren W Wiersbe The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Lioy, 2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Lioy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son The Decalogue in the Sermon on the Mount Dan Lioy, 2004 In this work Dan Lioy first investigates the biblical concept of the law He then conducts a thoroughgoing analysis of the Decalogue and the Sermon on the Mount He gives particular attention to the connection between these two great bodies of biblical literature The result is a comprehensive study that argues for the enduring relevance of the moral law This volume is appropriate for personal study and is also suitable as a college and seminary text Semanatorul (The Sower), Volume One, Number One Hamilton Moore, Ilie Soritau, Adrian Giorgiov, 2019-09-10 About the Journal This first volume of Sem n torul The Sower The Journal of

Ministry and Biblical Research has been produced through the collaboration of Emanuel University Press the Emanuel Ethics and Society Research Centre and distinguished colleagues from the Hungarian Baptist Academy The publishing efforts were aided by Dr Alm si Tibor Rector Hungarian Baptist Academy The volume comprises the Proceedings of the International Theological Conference held by the Department of Theology on 6th May 2016 in Emanuel University of Oradea The theme of the Conference was Hebrews Its Historical Context and Theological Significance For many scholars Hebrews 13 22 gives some guidance concerning the nature of the epistle Bear with my word of exhortation for I have written to you briefly The suggestion is that the background may be a sermon given on a certain occasion and then later adapted into letter form with the addition of personal comments at the end But what of its readers It is thought that the first readers were Hebrews and the camp of 13 13 ancient Judaism They were Jews attracted to the Christian community and who had identified with it But Christianity had none of the ritual trappings they had known no altar no priests no sacrifices They were meeting ridicule opposition imprisonment and being disowned and disinherited by their families 10 32 Some had coped well with this adversity but others were looking back to the temple from where they had come 10 32 39 Was not Judaism God ordained The author of Hebrews seeks to set before them the better things which have become theirs a better priesthood better sanctuary better sacrifice better covenant true access to the very presence of the Most High 10 19 21 Also the greater things that is Christ greater than angels Moses Joshua and Aaron The Proceedings Papers in this Journal will touch upon some of the aspects of the situation outlined above The significance of the opening verses of Hebrews for the whole epistle is outlined in the opening paper Other papers focus on the themes endurance pilgrimage echoes in interpretation a comparison of the epistle with Philo the significance of the time of reformation for worship in Hebrews a semiotic approach regarding Psalm 2 and the profile of the Son the concept of repentance and critique of the perspectives of George Milligan regarding the importance of the epistle Emanuel University continues to be a strong witness as a conservative university in all of Europe It should be understood that the sources highlighted and the views presented in these papers remain those of the contributors themselves Hamilton Moore Editor With All Your Heart A. Craig Troxel, 2020-02-04 Here is a book to be welcomed enthusiastically to be read carefully and to be returned to frequently Sinclair B Ferguson In our world we use the word heart to refer to our emotions But the Bible uses the word heart to refer to the governing center of life We need to grasp the true meaning of the heart in order to better understand ourselves our sin and our need for redemption As we rediscover the heart as the source of all our thoughts fears words and actions we will discover principles and practices for orienting our hearts to truly love and obey God with all that we are Recycling Biblical Figures Athalya Brenner, Jan Willem van Henten, 2021-11-15 STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 1 This collection of essays presented by senior international scholars and junior biblical scholars during a colloquium and two master classes of the Netherlands School for Advanced Studies in Theology and Religion NOSTER discusses the processes by which biblical entities are appropriated updated

H. R. Horsley,1989-01-01 The Great Divide and the Salvation Paradox David P. Griffith,2022-04-07 The church in its first centuries split on whether Christ saved everyone or a few Universalism versus

Exclusivism In the sixth century the church settled the issue seemingly and held that Universalism was heresy This book reviews this history as well as what provoked it Scripture on its face gives two contradictory accounts of salvation s extent everyone is ultimately saved and everyone is not In contrast to both Exclusivism and Universalism the book takes Scripture s two accounts of salvation s extent as true that is as a paradox This is the approach the church has taken with other scriptural paradoxes Saying one God is three or one Son is both God and man appeared to be contradictory too but to embrace Scripture entirely these were seen as paradoxical The Trinity modeled how one can be three and the hypostatic union modeled how one can be two For the paradox of salvation s extent the answer lies in the individual s divisibility in the afterlife one can be two That is in ultimate salvation each individual can be both saved and unsaved Biblical, Traditional, and Theological Framework for Understanding Christian Prophetism in Ghana Today Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh,2019-01-03 The basis for this project is to verify and determine the extent to which contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana appropriates prophetism in the early church Corpus Paulinum and traditional prophetism in Ghana The spirit of prophecy which was believed to have ceased in Judaism and during the intertestamental period has now been restored at the inauguration of Christianity Notwithstanding Paul gave stipulations for prophets and prophecy in the church in 1 Corinthians 14 This confirms that prophecy was a common phenomenon in the early church and Pauline communities Contemporary prophetic ministry in Ghana claimed to have conformed to Pauline stipulations concerning prophets and prophecy in the church but what is their level of conformity Contemporary prophetic ministry is becoming popular due to its appeal and compatibility with religious worldviews and its pragmatic outlook that resonates with the Ghanaian phenomenon of religion As an adherent of the Akan traditional religion would go to a religious intermediary for ebisa literally to inquire or ask into present or future happenings contemporary prophets have positioned themselves to be agents of ebisa in Ghanaian Christianity This book explores biblical and traditional understandings of prophetism that have influenced contemporary Christian understanding of prophets and prophecy in the church Journal of Northwest Semitic Languages ,1990

Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd,2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue The United States Catalog; Books in Print January 1, 1912 Marion Effie Potter,1921 Dreams in the African Church Nelson Osamu Hayashida,2023-09-20 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions
