New Light on Ancient Carthage John Griffiths Pedley,1980 Ancient Urban Planning in the Mediterranean Samantha L. Martin-McAuliffe,Daniel M. Millette,2017-12-06 New Directions in Urban Planning in the Ancient Mediterranean assembles the most up to date research on the design and construction of ancient cities in the wider Mediterranean In particular this edited collection reappraises and sheds light on lost Classical plans Whether intentional or not each ancient plan has the capacity to embody specific messages linked to such notions as heritage and identity Over millennia cities may be divested of their buildings and monuments and can experience periods of dramatic rebuilding but their plans often have the capacity to endure As such this volume focuses on Greek and Roman grid traces both literal and figurative This rich selection of innovative studies explores the ways that urban plans can assimilate into the collective memory of cities and smaller settlements In doing so it also highlights how collective memory adapts to or is altered by the introduction of re aligned plans and newly constructed monuments New Light on Ancient Carthage John Griffiths this important region of the Ancient World Delos, Carthage, Ampurias Birgit Tang,2005 The Bir Messaouda Basilica Richard Miles,Simon Greenslade,2019-12-31 This volume charts the radical transformation of an inner city neighbourhood in late antique Carthage which was excavated over a five year period by a team from the University of Cambridge Bordering the main thoroughfare leading from the Brysa Hill to the ports the neighbourhood remained primarily a residential one from the second century until 530s AD when a substantial basilica was constructed over the eastern half of the insula Further extensive modifications were made to the basilica half a century later when the structures on the western half of the insula were demolished and the basilica greatly enlarged with the addition of a new east west aisles a large monumental baptistery and a crypt By carefully reconstructing the complex architectural plan of this innovative building this study shows how the re modelled Bir Messaouda basilica was transformed into a major pilgrimage centre overturning established tradition that located such complexes outside the city walls The Bir Messaouda basilica provides important insights into the transition between Vandal and Byzantine control of the city the development of a new Christian inter mural urban landscape in the sixth century AD and the significance of the pilgrimage in reinforcing ecclesiastical authority in post Justinianic North Africa

Emperor, Prefects & Kings P. S. Barnwell, 1992 P S Barnwell examines the development of imperial and royal government in the western part of the Roman Empire and in the early barbarian kingdoms that were established within its frontiers the Visigothic Burgundian Frankish and Vandal nations Covering the fifth century the period from the death of the Emperor Theodosius to the death of the Emperor Justinian Barnwell s book demonstrates the extent to which barbarian government was influenced by its Roman predecessor Earlier studies have argued implicitly that the fifth century witnessed the disintegration of an ordered Roman governmental system and its replacement by a series of disorganized Germanic administrations Barnwell by contrast examines Roman government of the fifth century western Empire on its own terms and then analyzes the administrations of individual Barbarian kingdoms in relation to this fifth century Roman background He shows that the law and government of the Barbarian kingdoms were more deeply indebted to Roman institutions than most previous historians have realized

World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker, 2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical

Ezekiel in Context Brian Neil Peterson, 2012-05-03 One of the most perplexing and misunderstood books of the Bible Ezekiel has left many scholars and exegetes scratching their heads regarding its message coherency and interpretation Brian Peterson s look at the book of Ezekiel as a unified whole set within an exilic context helps explain some of the more difficult symbolic aspects in the book and makes Ezekiel as a whole more intelligible Drawing on ancient Near Eastern concepts and motifs such as covenant and treaty curses the various gods that made up the Babylonian pantheon and the position that Israel held as the people of Yahweh Peterson enlightens readers by showing that Ezekiel can only be understood in its original context By placing the book first in its historical context Peterson demonstrates how the original hearers of its message would have understood it and how this message can be appreciated and applied by people today as well
