Rationale For A New Way Of Teaching Music:

Rationale for a New Way of Teaching Music Pierre Galin, 1983 First published in 1818 Pierre Galin's analysis of the learning processes common to language and music still present a challenge today Rationale for a new way of teaching music (from "Exposition d'une nouvelle méthode", 1818) Pierre Galin, 1983 Bernarr Rainbow on Music Bernarr Rainbow, 2010 Rainbow's memoir is followed by his life of the tonic sol fa propagandist John Curwen whom Rainbow honoured by founding the Curwen Institute in 1972 Building Choral Excellence Steven M. Demorest, 2003-04-10 Designed for both the practicing choral director and the choral methods student this is a compact and comprehensive overview of the many teaching methods strategies materials and assessments available for choral sight singing instruction Sight singing is an important if sometimes neglected facet of choral music education that often inspires fear and uncertainty in student and teacher alike Written in an accessible style this book takes the mystery out of teaching music reading Topics covered include the history of sight singing pedagogy and research prominent methods and materials and practical strategies for teaching and assessment This is the only book to provide such a wealth of information under one cover and will become an essential part of every choral conductor's library Teaching Music with Purpose Peter Loel Boonshaft, 2006 Meredith Music Resource Like his first critically acclaimed international bestseller Teaching Music with Passion this new book from Peter Boonshaft is even more poignant and powerful Called one of the most exciting and exhilarating voices in music education today Boonshaft's latest work is both inspirational and instructional and will definitely warm your heart and transform your teaching a href="http://youtu.be/bHQ21_tjgEU" target="_blank" Click here for a YouTube video on Teaching Music with Purpose a Music Education in Crisis Peter Dickinson, 2013 Seminal lectures on music education since the 1990s There is no question that music education is in crisis today The place of music in the national curriculum is controversial there have been cuts in the provision of individual lessons and there have been severe reductions in government funding with more planned This book containing the first five Bernarr Rainbow Lectures makes an important and timely contribution to the debate on music education Baroness Warnock brings the perspective of a distinguished philosopher to bear on issues about the nature of music and its study Lord Moser urges us to maintain and expand what has been achieved since World War II the late Professor John Paynter responsible for the 1960s surge in creative approaches to music teaching presents his case in two contributions John Stephens discusses structures for music teaching and then in a second contribution brings everything up to date and Professor Gavin Henderson traces his own colourful career and supports music for all ages Also included is the 2005 Royal Philharmonic Society by the Master of the Queen's Music Sir Peter Maxwell Davies an assessment from Bernarr Rainbow himself written late in his life an indictment from Wilfrid Mellers and two reviews of Bernarr Rainbow on Music Memoirs and Selected Writings showing the continuing importance of his work fifteen years after his death This book is part of the series Classic Texts in Music Education edited by Professor Peter Dickinson and supported by the Bernarr

How Equal Temperament Ruined Harmony (and Why You Should Care) Ross W. Duffin, 2008-10-17 A fascinating and genuinely accessible guide Educating enjoyable and delightfully unscary Classical Music What if Bach and Mozart heard richer more dramatic chords than we hear in music today What sonorities and moods have we lost in playing music in equal temperament the equal division of the octave into twelve notes that has become our standard tuning method Thanks to How Equal Temperament Ruined Harmony we may soon be able to hear for ourselves what Beethoven really meant when he called B minor black Wall Street Journal In this comprehensive plea for more variety in tuning methods Kirkus Reviews Ross W Duffin presents a serious and well argued case Goldberg Magazine that should make any contemporary musician think differently about tuning Saturday Guardian Some images in the ebook are not displayed owing to permissions issues

Music in Independent Schools Bernarr Rainbow, Andrew Morris, 2014 The first serious study of music in independent schools which bears eloquent witness to a high standard achieved over the last fifty years This is the first serious study of music in independent schools The high standard of musical work in such schools has long been known but now Andrew Morris and his team have provided up to date information There are contributions from seven individual schools Bedford Dulwich Eton Gresham s St Paul s Uppingham and Worksop as well as chapters about Girls Schools Preparatory Schools Choir Schools and Specialist Schools Andrew Morris was Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty two years and was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association in 1996 97 He is thus ideally placed to mastermind a substantial compendium which is eminently readable and absorbing The book includes material from Bernarr Rainbow s study Music in the English Public School 1990 and brings it up to date As a historian Rainbow looked back at how music developed in independent schools Progress was slow even tortuous but Rainbow s fascinating documents supported by his commentary show how idealism won through and Morris and his colleagues bear eloquent witness to the very positive development over the last fifty years ANDREW MORRIS taught in secondary modern grammar and comprehensive schools in London before becoming Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty two years He was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association from 1996 97 and President of the RAM Club at the Royal Academy of Music 2005 06 He has examined for the ABRSM for over thirty years BERNARR RAINBOW 1914 1998 is widely recognised as the leading authority on the history of music education His seminal books are all published by Boydell and are listed on the back pages of this volume His series of Classic Texts in Music Education is a major resource and in 1997 he founded the Bernarr Rainbow Trust which supports projects in music education

Berger, 2010-03-02 A pitch perfect resource that will be a number one hit with music instructors The Complete Idiot's Guide to Teaching Music on Your Own offers prospective teachers and existing ones all of the tools they need to start and run a profitable respected studio The comprehensive guide covers every aspect of running a studio including Setting up a studio Lessons in the home versus traveling to students Advertising and marketing Fee schedules and basic pricing principles Student relations Using computer games and programs in the studio The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education Ruth Wright, Geir Johansen, Panagiotis A. Kanellopoulos, Patrick Schmidt, 2021-03-29 The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education is a comprehensive authoritative and state of the art review of current research in the field The opening introduction orients the reader to the field highlights recent developments and draws together concepts and research methods to be covered The chapters that follow are written by respected experienced experts on key issues in their area of specialisation From separate beginnings in the United States Europe and the United Kingdom in the mid twentieth century the field of the sociology of music education has and continues to experience rapid and global development It could be argued that this Handbook marks its coming of age The Handbook is dedicated to the exclusive and explicit application of sociological constructs and theories to issues such as globalisation immigration post colonialism inter generational musicking socialisation inclusion exclusion hegemony symbolic violence and popular culture Contexts range from formal compulsory schooling to non formal communal environments to informal music making and listening The Handbook is aimed at graduate students researchers and professionals but will also be a useful text for undergraduate students in music education and cultural studies Volume of Proceedings of the Music Teachers' National Association ... Music Teachers National Association, 1923 With the report of the 16th meeting 1894 was issued The secretary's official report of the special meeting Chicago 1893 containing a summary of the reports of meetings from 1876 to 1892 Papers and Proceedings of the Music Teachers' National Association Music Teachers National Association, 1923 Dictionary of Music and Musicians Sir George Grove, John Alexander Fuller-Maitland, 1895 Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education Helen Julia Minors, Stefan Östersjö, Gilvano Dalagna, Jorge Salgado Correia, 2024-05-27 Higher Music Performance Education as taught and learned in universities and conservatoires in Europe is undergoing transformation Since the nineteenth century the master apprentice pedagogical model has dominated creating a learning environment that emphasises the development of technical skills rather than critical and creative faculties This book contributes to the renewal of this field by being the first to address the potential of artistic research in developing student centred approaches and greater student autonomy This potential is demonstrated in chapters illustrating artistic research projects that are embedded within higher music education courses across Europe with examples ranging from instrumental tuition and ensemble work to the development of professional employability skills and inclusive practices Bringing together diverse and experienced voices working within Higher Music Education but often also as professional performers this edited collection pairs critical reflection with artistic insight to present new approaches to curricula for teaching interpretation and performance It calls for greater collaboration between Higher Education and professional music institutions to create closer bonds with music industries and thereby improve students career opportunities Teaching Music Performance in Higher Education will appeal to scholars performers teachers but also students whose interests centre on innovative practices in conservatoires and music departments

Philosophy of Music Education Challenged: Heideggerian Inspirations Frederik Pio, Øivind Varkøy, 2014-10-20 This volume offers key insights into the crisis of legitimization that music as a subject of arts education seems to be in Music as an educational subject is under intense pressure both economically due to the reduction of education budgets as well as due to a loss of status with policy makers The contributions in this book illuminate Martin Heidegger s thinking as a highly cogent theoretical framework for understanding the nature and depth of this crisis The contributors explore from various angles the relationship between the pressure on music education and the foundations of our technical and rationalized modern society and lead the way on the indispensable first steps towards reconnecting the cultural practices of education with music and its valuable contributions to personal development
