The Mediterranean Russell King, Lindsay Proudfoot, Bernard Smith, 2014-02-25 This book addresses contemporary geographical issues in the Mediterranean Basin from a perspective that recognizes the physical characteristics and cultural interactions which link the different Mediterranean states as a recognisable geographic entity Sixteen chapters each deal with a major geographical issue currently facing the Mediterranean each providing an invaluable summary of the extensive but widely dispersed literature relating to Mediterranean issues Particular emphasis is placed on the interaction between society and environment in terms of environmental management differential regional development and its associated political demographic cultural and economic tensions

The Textual Life of Savants Gisli Pálsson,2013-11-26 First Published in 1995 This book focuses on the role and significance of texts and textualism for anthropology and ethnography and more specifically the understanding of particular aspects of Icelandic society and history The discussion is centred on a range of issues moving between general social theory and ethnographic details the immediate present and the distant past language and production fieldwork and the act of writing texts sagas novels and ethnographies and real life In each case however it draws attention to what may be called a pragmatist approach a concern with action and agency as they constitute and are constituted by social life Such an approach I hold is an important and timely remedy to current textualism the trendy theoretical tradition often described as the linguistic turn

Tuscan Spaces Silvia M. Ross,2010-05-01 An important locus for English speaking writers the region of Tuscany is also well represented in the Italian literary canon In Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross focuses on constructions of Tuscany in twentieth century Italian literature and juxtaposes them with English prose works by such authors as E M Forster and Frances Mayes to expose the complexity of literary representation centred on a single milieu Ross uses the works of writers such as Federico Tozzi Aldo Palazzeschi Vasco Pratolini and Elena Gianini Belotti to seek out alternative visions of Tuscan space and emphasizes that each author fashions the region in a manner which reflects their personal poetics background and experiences Theories of cultural geography space travel and narrative contribute to Ross s consideration of the dualisms commonly employed in writings about Tuscany such as country city nature culture female male and self other all of which are in turn affected by her interrogation of the local foreign opposition that underlies the study as a whole

Italy Roland Sarti,2009 Exploring more than 500 years of the country s history Italy provides readers interested in modern Italy or European history with a greater understanding of Italy s past from the Renaissance to the present This guide presents the milestones in Italy s history in an interesting and readable way

Centuries of Child Labour Marjatta Rahikainen,2017-07-05 Centuries of Child Labour argues that some of the conventional wisdom on child labour can be qualified and even questioned if we turn from the experiences of leading 19th century countries such as Britain and France to economically and politically weaker countries of Northern Europe Taking a long term perspective from the seventeenth to the twentieth century Marjatta Rahikainen conveys a richer sense of child labour by comparing the experiences of the Northern European Scandinavian periphery to the paradigmatic cases of Britain and France

Hidden Histories D. Medina Lasansky,2018-01-10 Tuscany is a landscape whose cultural construction is complicated and multi layered It is this very complexity that this book seeks to untangle By revealing hidden histories we learn how food landscape and architecture are intertwined as well as the extent to which Italian design and contemporary consumption patterns form a legacy that draws upon the Romantic longings of a century before In the process this book reveals the extent to which Tuscany has been constructed by Anglos and what has been distorted idealized and even overlooked in the process Catastrophe and Creation K. Elkhalm Friedmann,2014-03-18 First Published in 1992 This is a study of what happened to Kongo society and culture at the turn of the 20th century when the area was penetrated brutally violated and colonized by Europeans This book is the outcome of a project called Society and Culture in Crisis whereby the author found that evolution was a continuous more or less unbroken process only at the global system level whereas repeated rises and falls took place at the local level This study closely looks at the declining development process in the Lower Congo and calls to the effects of colonization on society and culture OECD Territorial Reviews: Siena, Italy 2002 OECD,2002-07-05 OECD s territorial review of the Italian province of Siena Unstructuring Chinese Society Allen Chun,2004-08-02 Unstructuring Chinese Society is a culmination of long term field work and archival research that challenges existing theories of social organisation and cultural change The book makes new sense of historical contradictions political conflicts and deep seated social transformations that have underlined the experience of colonial rule and the practices of local institutions in Hong Kong over the past century By focusing on the ongoing interactions of discourse practices and global local relations in cultural terms Unstructuring Chinese Society puts forth a fresh perspective in the field of historical anthropology while addressing ongoing critical concerns in postcolonial theory and our understanding of tradition and modernity The Return of Ainu Katarina Sjoberg,2013-10-31 First Published in 1993 This book is the outcome of a project called Intercultural Relations in Japan with Special Reference to the Integration of the Ainu The author s main concern is the phenomenon called Fourth World Populations After having read a book entitled Aiona by the French linguist Pierre Naert she decided to investigate further the Ainu people and their integration into the Japanese nation state Islamic Law on Peasant Usufruct in Ottoman Syria Sabrina Joseph,2012-05-08 Drawing on Hanafi legal texts from Ottoman Syria between the 17th and early 19th centuries this book examines how jurists balanced the rights and obligations of tenants and landlords on state and waqf lands contributing in the process to the dynamism of the law and the adaptability and longevity of the Ottoman land system The Magical Body Richard Eves,2014-01-09 An intriguing exploration of the role and significance of the body in the world of a Pacific Islands People the Lelet of New Ireland Papua New Guinea In vivid ethnographic detail the monograph captures the fluidity and complexity of Lelet conceptions of corporeality and their significance to identity as they encounter the influences of modernity in the form of colonialism Christianity and cash cropping The author examines the importance of the body to constructions of identity and difference and its role in the constitution of place and space The book provides a richly detailed ethnographic study of magical belief and the body whilst paying particular attention to the polyvalent meanings of bodily images and metaphors as they are used in numerous contexts of magic Androgynous Objects Maureen A. MacKenzie,2019-01-25 Androgynous Objects explores the way meaning is encoded in material culture by focusing on the androgynous symbolism of the looped string bag or bilum of the Telefol people of Central New Guinea. The web of meanings woven into the bag is shown to extend beyond women's lives and bodies. It is open to manipulation and reformation in a variety of contexts and is used by both Telefol women and men to explore and so explain the complexities and ambiguities inherent in their social life. The Hard People Patrick Healy, 2013-12-19. Healy draws on both participant observation and interviews with older informants to trace the effects of recent exogenous technological and institutional changes and the way local people have responded to them. His findings relate to such themes of recent history as nationalism, regionalism, and anti-clericalism and contribute to the theoretical debate on the relevance of structuralist anthropology to European societies. Mayan People Within and Beyond Boundaries Peter Hervik, 1999. First Published in 2003. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company.
