Uttering the Unutterable Louis F. Groarke, 2023-01-15 Literature utters the unutterable not through logic not through science not through argument but through a pitch of eloquence so pronounced the conscientious reader cannot fail to pay attention Louis Groarke argues that literature is an honorific term we use to describe texts that are so overpowering they lift us to an encounter with an ineffable ultimate that is beyond logical or scientific explanation In Uttering the Unutterable he proposes a wisdom epistemology that identifies an experience of transcendence as the defining criterion of literature Offering four mutually reinforcing definitions of literature in line with Aristotle's theory of four causes Groarke compares the experience of reading to Aristotle's account of philosophical contemplation and maintains that literature has inevitable ethical content Moving beyond the Aristotelianism of the late Chicago School Groarke presents a new synthesis that breaks through essentialist stereotypes and contends that literature like religion points to an ineffable transcendental to something beyond what we can adequately explain prove systematize quantify or enclose in a theory
