Democratising Local Government, 2002 Local government is at the forefront of development In South Africa the ambitious policy objectives of post apartheid reconstruction and development hinge on the successful creation of a democratic tier of government close to the people An entirely new system of developmental local government has thus been introduced As is the case in many developing countries the responsibilities of municipalities in South Africa have been extended dramatically often without adequate resources Managing municipalities for development therefore requires political will and strategic intervention The book provides a comprehensive introduction to developmental local government It includes the design of the new local government system and the issues posed by decentralisation an overview of specific challenges of urban and rural municipalities a discussion of special issues facing local government including poverty gender and environment new tools for local government including budgeting indicators municipal partnerships and capacity building

The Crisis of South African Foreign Policy Matthew Graham, 2015-09-28 The emergence of a new democratic South Africa under Nelson Mandela was regarded as a high watermark for international ideals of human rights and democracy Much was expected of the ANC in power particularly that it would be able to translate its ideals into a coherent foreign policy for the African continent Yet its foreign policy since 1994 has been mired in accusations of incoherence contradiction and failure Here based on extensive archival research and interviews Matthew Graham offers new ways of interpreting South Africa's foreign policy by investigating the continuities and discontinuities of the ANC's international relations from exile to political power Charting the political intrigues during the country's transition from apartheid and the subsequent influences on Presidents Mandela and Mbeki The Crisis of South African Foreign Policy makes a vital contribution to our understanding of why post apartheid South Africa has failed to lead Africa on the world stage

Understanding Policy Implementation C. K. Kabemba, Tobias Schmitz, 1999

Governance in the New South Africa Guy C. Z. Mhone, Omano Edigheji, 2003 The major challenges confronting South Africa since the advent of non racial multiparty democracy have been the need to promote democratic governance economic growth global competitiveness and to improve the standard of living of its people especially the previously disadvantaged majority Black population These challenges have coincided with the ascendancy of globalisation with its attendant social economic and political imperatives all of which have consequences for governance and development at the national level not least in emerging economies like South Africa This important book assesses the implications of global imperatives for the nature capacity character and scope of democratic governance and the pursuit of equitable development in the new South Africa A major conclusion is that the implementation of domestic economic reforms predicated on market fundamentalism with its dominant logic and paradigm of globalisation and economic management is incompatible and irreconcilable with the quest for democratic governance and equitable development The contributors contend that such an approach reproduces a substantively undemocratic and inequitable society Governance in the New South Africa concludes by offering some considerations related to how substantive democracy and equitable development may be promoted in South Africa on the basis of democratic governance and developmentalism
