a Boy! John Dwight Marchalleck, 2017-11-14 The Story of a Boy By John Dwight Marchalleck John Dwight Marchalleck was born in the parish of St Andrew Jamaica At the age of three his mother migrated to the U S A and his new guardian parents her mom and dad became the main lifelong influence for John as reflected in The Story of a Boy John was a happy child growing up with his grandmother and grandfather In this book he reflects on hardships like drought affecting his hometown mountain village from time to time His farmer grandfather and philanthropic grandmother were his primary tutors and idols His grandfather was a storyteller who provided candy for the village children who stopped by to visit and listen Like many grandchildren John was sent away to boarding school and later to attend high school in Kingston but continued to communicate with them through written letters a habit encouraged by his grandma While in high school his fondness for writing was also reflected by mystery stories John wrote and were aired on JBC Jamaica Broadcasting Corporation That earned the boy extra pocket money But this fostered bad habits as John began to frequent the billiard halls in Kingston which prevented him from going home directly after school This was reported to the headmaster who meted out fifty page homework essays for John in lieu of other detention to curb the boy's after school bad habits This enhanced John's appetite more for writing however rather than stop him playing billiards or frequenting the pool halls the boy could effortlessly produce written assignments on most given topics free of grammatical errors In 1963 John migrated and joined his biological mom in the U S A Later as a student at the Benjamin Franklin School of Accounting and Finance in Washington D C John worked and published articles in both the National Geographic Society's School and News Services A long drought in writing from John came however but now The Story of a Boy can be happily shared with the world

The Guardians on Trial William H. F. Altman, 2016-07-19 Based on a conception of Reading Order introduced and developed in his Plato the Teacher The Crisis of the Republic Lexington 2012 and The Guardians in Action Plato the Teacher and the Post Republic Dialogues from Timaeus to Theaetetus Lexington 2016 William H F Altman now completes his study of Plato's so called late dialogues by showing that they include those that depict the trial and death of Socrates According to Altman it is not Order of Composition but Reading Order that makes Euthyphro Apology of Socrates Crito and Phaedo late dialogues and he shows why Plato's decision to interpolate the notoriously late Sophist and Statesman between Euthyphro and Apology deserves more respect from interpreters Altman explains this interpolation and another that places Laws between Crito and Phaedo as part of an ongoing test Plato has created for his readers that puts the Guardians on Trial If we don't recognize that Socrates himself is the missing Philosopher that the Eleatic Stranger never actually describes and also the antithesis of the Athenian Stranger who leaves Athens in order to create laws for Crete we pronounce ourselves too sophisticated to be Plato's Guardians and unworthy of the Socratic inheritance
