Reaching The Disadvantaged Learner:

Reaching the Disadvantaged Learner A. Harry Passow, 1970 Education non Aboriginal material      The annual report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills 2006/07 Great Britain. Office for Standards in Education, 2007-10-17 This publication brings together OFSTED inspection and regulation data covering the period from September 2006 to August 2007 With the establishment on 1 April 2007 of the Office for Standards in Education Children's Services and Skills OFSTED's responsibilities for inspecting children's services changed substantially with OFSTED now regulating and inspecting childcare children's social care and provision for learners of all ages The first part of the report summarises the outcomes of routine inspections and regulatory visits across OFSTED's remit The second part of the report examines three important themes in education and care i improved life chances of children and older learners from disadvantaged backgrounds ii the experience of children and young people where education and care develops awareness of personal cultural and national identity iii the effectiveness of education and training for young people entering work The report also refers to the national test results for 2007      Reaching Students, 1980      Research in Education, 1970

Resources in Education, 1992-10      Education and Training Policy ICT and Learning Supporting Out-of-School Youth and Adults OECD, National Center on Adult Literacy, 2006-05-12 This publication reveals a number of interesting examples of innovative programmes using ICT that can increase access to learning by out of school youths and adults      EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education      Information Series - ERIC Clearinghouse on Vocational and Technical Education, the Center for Vocational and Technical Education, the Ohio State University Ohio State University. Center for Vocational and Technical Education, 1971      Study of Academic Instruction for Disadvantaged Students: Commissioned papers and literature review Brenda J. Turnbull, 1990      Reaching the Marginalized, 2010-01-01 Children at risk of marginalization in education are found in all societies At first glance The lives of these children may appear poles apart The daily experiences of slum dwellers in Kenya ethnic minority children in Viet Nam and a Roma child in Hungary are very different What they have in common are missed opportunities to develop their potential realize their hopes and build a better future through education A decade has passed since world leaders adopted the Education for All goals While progress has been made millions of children are still missing out on their right to education Reaching the marginalized identifies some of the root causes of disadvantage both within education and beyond and provides examples of targeted policies and practices that successfully combat exclusion Set against the backdrop of the global economic crisis The Report calls for a renewed financing commitment by aid donors and recipient governments alike to meet the Education for All goals by 2015 This is the eighth edition of the annual EFA Global Monitoring Report The Report includes statistical indicators on all levels of education in more than 200 countries and territories Study of Academic Instruction for Disadvantaged Students: Commissioned papers and literature review Michael Sturgis Knapp, Patrick M. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1970 Information Series ERIC Clearinghouse on Vocational and Technical Education, 1966 Challenges and Inequalities in Lifelong Learning and Social Justice Susan Jackson, 2014-10-29 The connections and interactions of lifelong learning and social justice are complex and contested Both are seen as a means to unconditional good with little account taken of the inequalities and equalities located in constructions of power This book develops critical ways to engage with international debates about lifelong learning and social justice through a range of competing and contested definitions setting out some of the complexities and challenges of linking the two concepts In particular it engages in debates about the equalities and inequalities of learner identities displacement and place Its chapters consider those marginalised in complex and multiple ways including gender social class ethnicity age and migration This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education

Comprehensive Dictionary of Education Maqbool Ahmad, 2008 Achieving Transparency in Pro-poor Education Incentives Muriel Poisson, Unesco, 2014 What are the ways to ensure that scholarships conditional cash transfers and free school meals actually reach their intended beneficiaries This book assumes that different models of design targeting and management of pro poor incentives can prove more or less successful in maximizing efficiency transparency and accountability and in minimizing the likelihood of errors fraud and corrupt practices The authors argue that deliberate actions taken to confront related corruption risks such as simplified targeting legal definition of responsibilities local transparency committees school display boards appeals mechanisms informal whistle blowing and social audits among others are of greater importance than the adopted incentive model They conclude by highlighting the value of mutual accountability systems where all actors are mutually accountable and subject to checks and balances Education for All in Times of Crisis Marilyn Leask, Sarah Younie, 2021-09-27 This book is a response to the loss of learning experienced by children and young people during the Covid 19 crisis It examines the measures which were taken to fix the disruption of education and their limitations particularly in reaching marginalised groups Drawing on data and experiences from around the world the book examines education systems as ecosystems with interdependencies between many different components which need to be considered when change is contemplated Chapters explore the challenges involved ensuring continuity of education for all learners in times of crisis and disruption and set out practical solutions that are relevant when preparing for natural disasters and disasters caused by humans as well as for climate change challenges and future pandemics The focus throughout is on building the sustainability of learners education into education systems to ensure educational continuity for all learners in times of disruption and crisis Including tools for planning prompts for reflection and future possibilities to consider Education for All in Times of Crisis will be valuable reading for school leaders educators and policy makers

Schools That Succeed, Students Who Achieve James Deneen, 2010-01-16 Schools That Succeed Students Who Achieve compares the academic achievements of students in the United States to those of students in other countries Examining fundamental questions and educational issues James Deneen identifies what all students should learn and discusses what American students currently learn Deneen argues that failing schools can become successful by studying examples of successful schools with similar demographic features To that end he presents profiles of ten successful elementary schools seven middle schools ten high schools and three highly diverse but successful school districts The examples contain a sampling of economically disadvantaged as well as affluent and financially average school communities This book provides demographic data evidence of student achievement and descriptions of programs that contribute to each school and district s success illuminating what successful schools do to improve student achievement regardless of or sometimes because of their socioeconomic status In the final chapters of this book Deneen describes the assessment and evaluation of curricular changes and summarizes the policies and practices that work to create successful schools

OECD Economic Surveys: Mexico 2019 OECD, 2019-05-14 Mexico s robust macroeconomic policy framework has supported moderate growth despite several headwinds in recent years However low productivity growth has hindered Mexico s convergence to higher income OECD countries and inequalities remain high These factors call for a renewed strategy to boost productivity and inclusiveness
