Catholic Christianity in Evolution Alan Sage, 2021-06-01 Christianity and its theological and spiritual underpinnings does not fulfil the needs of people living in a rapidly changing world For all its good intention the Catholic Church has failed to provide the necessary religious tools to its congregants and wider Catholic community to confront the ecological and environmental problems that confront mankind This book sets out the required parameters of spirituality within an evolutionary world context linking the theological with the practical under the aegis of the Jesuit Pierre Teilhard de Chardin His writings promote a concept of God at the centre of the world we live in a Christian way of living fully engaged At the heart of Teilhard s world view are creation evolution and the environment He provides the spiritual tools to understand a God that is in real effect our evolving world and our actions toward it In looking after God s world through our daily commitment we meet the needs of the whole of creation And this makes Christian faith truly meaningful and of direct relevance to our living in the world Indeed the second encyclical of Pope Francis Laudato si with its care for our common home message is Teilhardian in its outlook Likewise the Pope s sacrament of the brother teaching Because of the inextricable link between human activity and the creative work of God Teilhard saw all human endeavour as holy Herewith the Ignatian theme of finding God in all things coupled with a cosmic approach to redemption and the notion of ongoing divine creativity Teilhard s vision is a template for understanding our place in the world our intimate relationship to the whole of creation and our responsibilities to the environment and to each other Teilhard asks us to face the challenges of a rapidly changing world as co creators with God a tremendous privilege but also an awesome responsibility An Appendix lists all of Teilhard s writings and their publication sources divided into five main sections and further subdivided by topic an indispensable resource tool for Teilhard scholars and for readers familiar with The Divine Milieu and The Human

Phenomenon Spiritual Direction Sue Pickering, 2014-09-16 Spiritual direction has been an intrinsic part of the Christian tradition since the earliest days of the church when desert mothers and fathers were sought out for their wisdom and guidance This guide aims to equip clergy and laity engaged in this task or in training for it Nurturing Faith Fred P. Edie, Mark A. Lamport, 2021-09-07 Faith left on rocky soil withers But faith nurtured in the good soil of Christian teaching formation and mentorship grows to maturity and yields thriving community Educational ministries are so often where this happens where the desires of the human heart are shaped toward a love for God a love for one s neighbor and a love for the world In this comprehensive guide to educational ministries in the twenty first century Fred Edie and Mark Lamport explore how church leaders and others involved in Christian education can nurture a robust cruciform faith within their communities When discussing strategies and goals Edie and Lamport consider a range of contexts and a variety of related fields that might give insight into educational ministry theology pedagogy philosophy social science and more Those working with any age group children adolescents and adults will find a relevant discussion of key underlying theological themes a guide to concrete practices and indispensable help in navigating shifting cultural dynamics Exceedingly practical and consistent with the teachings of the gospel the wisdom in this book will speak to all who long to foster discipleship in their church school or missional community Key Features A Road Map at the beginning of each chapter concisely introduces the chapter s topic and essential themes Sidebars throughout the text provide deeper insight into particular important or nuanced concepts

Discussion questions at the end of each chapter facilitate further reflection especially in conversation with others

Suggestions for further reading are provided at the end of each chapter for those interested in exploring the chapter's ideas in greater depth

Concluding the book is a series of afterwords from experts in the field of Christian educational ministries

Martyn Percy Almeda Wright Craig Dykstra Kirsten Oh Elizabeth DeGaynor and Thomas Groome Pope Francis Mario I Aguilar, 2014-05-29

Pope Francis His Life and Thought paints a compelling picture of a truly remarkable pope considering his life in detail until his election as Pope Francis in 2013 Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio was a highly unusual candidate for the papacy for two main reasons the pope from far away is the first non European to be elected and furthermore he began his career as a Jesuit one of God's soldiers Members of the order traditionally do not ascend the hierarchy of the Church and it took a personal request from Pope John Paul II for Bergoglio to leave the Society of Jesus and accept his appointment as bishop Bergoglio's theological principles have been profoundly shaped by these two factors However the author also reveals that the evolution of his thought was deeply affected by his simple Argentinean upbringing and his fearless work in the slums of Buenos Aires as a young Jesuit and as a senior member of the Church Bergoglio has consistently emphasised the importance of alleviating the suffering of the poor following the teaching of Vatican II and in keeping with his own unflinching morality This volume reveals Pope Francis as remarkably humble and altruistic man doctrinally conservative and engaged less in politics than in the struggle to re-centre the Church at the margins of society It will be of great interest to any reader who wishes to know more about this inspiring individual Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07

Formational Leadership Marcus K. Kilian, 2018-07-17 This book addresses the problem of toxic leadership in Christian contexts Toxic leadership behaviors of narcissistic and obsessive compulsive leaders will be emphasized To counteract toxic Christian leadership this book proposes a leadership development model called formational leadership which is based mostly on Wesleyan spirituality but also includes monastic and Pentecostal spiritualities Formational leadership is an eclectic leadership development model that includes components of transformational authentic and primal leadership approaches Formational leadership emphasizes the spiritual emotional and ethical development processes in the leader and includes an analysis of orthokardia orthodynamis and orthopraxis These components have a circular relationship with one another Orthokardia includes the concepts of spiritual and emotional maturity that a Christian leader needs to develop in order to become an ethical and effective leader Orthodynamis includes right power and influence motives based on Christian affections that should inform formational leadership Orthopraxis refers to right and just leadership behaviors informed by Wesley's social holiness and justice values that need to be adopted as organizational core values The implications of these components for leadership development are outlined in chapters 4-6 that include practical steps for helping toxic leaders change their dysfunctional and harmful intentions and behaviors

How Then Shall We Guide? Jimmy Boon-Chai

Tan, 2023-05-25 There has been a marked increase of interest in the art of spiritual direction in recent decades Yet in many circles especially in ecumenical and interfaith contexts it is unclear what grounds the practice of this ancient art As a tradition's practice of spiritual direction expresses its particular theology which in turn is shaped by its unique history this work explains that ecumenical spiritual direction must make and retain the tri-perspective of history theology and method that faithfully reflects each tradition's distinctives as requisite for true ecumenical enrichment The importance of this trinocular vision is brought into sharp focus through a comparative study of Ignatius of Loyola and John Calvin where points of continuity and discontinuity between the Ignatian and Reformed traditions underscore the importance of this work's thesis

Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke, 2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fit Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation's expectations probably won't connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through
